CEREMONIES AT NOON TODAY

WASHINGTON, MARCH 3.—Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey has come to Washington to be inaugurated tomorrow the twenty-eighth president of the United States. His was a triumphal entry, the pentup Democratic enthusiasm of 16 years concentrating seemingly at the gateway of the nation's capital and bursting forth in a joyful acclaim.

Through a lane of Princeton university students and surrounded by cheering thousands, the president-elect and member of his family were hastened from the station escorted by an official reception committee to their hotel.

The dome of the capitol glistened under a brilliant sun as they passed and the city below presented a panorama of patriotic color as they viewed it from the hill. Smiling in the glow of a kindly day and bowing to the plaudits of the people, the former president of Princeton university who rose through the governorship of New Jersey to the highest office in the land, looking happy.

Visits President Taft.

Within less than two hours after his arrival Mr. Wilson for the first time in his life crossed the threshold of the white house and grasped the hand of William Howard Taft, president of the United States for a few hours longer. With Mrs. Wilson, the president-elect was escorted to the home which will be their tomorrow. By Colonel Spencer Cosby shortly before 6 o'clock in the evening. The President and Mrs. Taft awaited their coming, and extended them a cordial greeting and the keys to the home of presidents.

Before visiting the white house the Wilsons received the Vice-President-elect and Mrs. Marshall, Governor Sulzer of New York; Governor Pothier of Rhode Island and staff and a few personal friends.

Hold Family Reunion.

First, however, immediately after their arrival at the hotel, the President-elect, Mrs. Wilson and their daughters, joined in an informal reunion with other members of the family who have gathered from different parts of the country. An entire floor of the hotel is occupied by the members of the family who dined later in the evening as the guests of John Wilson of Franklin, Pa., cousin of the future president.

Tonight as an alumnus of Princeton university the man who is to guide the destinies of the nation was the honor guest of the alumni of his alma mater at a smoker. There he rubbed his elbows with other classmates and boys who had grown up under his guidance, and he left the last of his functions as a private citizen at a late hour to seek a few hours rest before the climatic event of his career tomorrow.

Ceremonies Extensive.

Nothing has been left undone to make the inaugural ceremonies the most extensive in the history of the country. The city tonight was filled with enthusiasm and thousands paraded the electric emblazoned streets. Constantly arriving throngs of visitors, military organizations and marching clubs served to keep excitement alive far into the night, the coming of Tammany braves from New York on their first invasion of Washington for twenty years marking the climax of the pre-inaugural demonstrations.

President-elect Wilson has reserved a few minutes tomorrow in which to greet newspapermen of the country. At 9 o'clock he will receive them at his hotel. At 9:30 he will receive the inaugural committee of congress—Senators Crane, Overman and Bacon and Representatives McKinley, Rucker and Garrett—who will escort him, with the vice-president-elect to the white house. President Taft will await them and soon thereafter the inaugural party will leave the white house for the capitol.

Major General Wood, chief of staff of the army, and staff will precede them in the ride through Pennsylvania avenue to Capital Hill, the president-elect being attended by the Essex troop, of New Jersey and Mr. Marshall by the Blackhorse troop of Culver academy, Indiana.

Ceremonies Begin at Noon.

Ceremonies in the inauguration of the vice-president and swearing in of the senators will begin promptly at 12 o'clock, noon, witnessed by the congress, members of the new cabinet, diplomats of all nations, justices of the supreme court and the elect of the land.

Then will follow on the east front of the capitol the induction into office of Woodrow Wilson.

MILLS ROBBERY MYSTERY UNSOLVED

REAL ESTATE DEALER'S WIFE ROBBED
OF $41,000

No One Has Been Arrested and None of the Money Has Been Recovered—Woman Disappears from Chicago—Is Thought to Be in St. Louis.

CHICAGO, MARCH 3.—Despite the efforts of the police, the strange story told by Mrs. Mabel Mills, wife of a real estate dealer in San Antonio, Texas, that she lost or was robbed of $41,000 after having been unconscious in a snowstorm in Evanston, a suburb, last Saturday night, remained tonight still a mystery. No one has been arrested and none of the money had been recovered.

A search of the ground where Mrs. Mills said she struggled for more than an hour and a half in the snow and under porches where it was hoped the money, all in $1,000 bills, might have been blown by the gale, failed to reveal any of the missing money. The envelope in which Mrs. Mills said she carried the money on the street and which was found empty had not been sealed. The bruises on the back of the woman's head, the police say, was not sufficient to have rendered her unconscious and the physicians at the hospital said Mrs. Mills could not have lost consciousness from any other cause.

After going thoroughly into the case the chief of police said he had no basis upon which to make any arrests.

Mrs. Mills has mysteriously disappeared and the Evanston police have been unable to trace her.

She left in the afternoon but the authorities did not learn of her departure until tonight. The hospital authorities told Chief Shaffer that Mrs. Mills had an appointment with her bankers in Chicago and that she had gone to meet them. The chief communicated with them but they denied that they had seen or heard from her.

The belief at present is that Mrs. Mills left Chicago tonight for St. Louis where she had previously told the police that she had business to transact.

ITALY ATTEMPTS TO INDUCE BALKAN STATES TO MODERATION

If Allies Would Use Moderation in Demands on Turkey Peace Might Be Brought About Soon.

Rome, March 3.—Italy is using all her influence with the Balkan states to induce them to observe moderation in their demands on Turkey, and thus bring about peace at an early date. Italian officials have pointed out to the Balkan administrations that such an attitude would strengthen the sympathy of Europe towards their cause.

The appointment of General Boyovitch, one of the Serbian delegates at the London conferences as commander of the forces besieging Scutari, is considered an indication of the firm determination of the Serbian and Montenegrins to take Scutari at any cost. Boyovitch is one of the most daring of the Serbian commanders. It was forces under him which captured Monastir at the point of bayonet.

Consider Application.
London, March 3.—Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary presided to day at a meeting of the powers to consider Turkey's application for mediation.

According to semi-official statements from Sofia, the allies will not agree to mediation unless the porte consents to surrender Adrianople, Scutari and Janina, and pay an indemnity.

Factfinder reports are published in Vienna of an Albanian rising against Serbian occupation of towns in Albanian territory. According to these reports communication with Scutari has been re-opened and the garrison has been with arms and ammunition.

Fighting continues in the Janina district where the Greeks claim small successes.

DUNNE NAMES TWO DAYS FOR ARBOR DAY

Will Be Observed April 18th in Southern Illinois and in Northern Illinois October 24th.

Springfield, Ill., March 3.—In a proclamation made public to day, Governor Edward F. Dunne, designates Friday, April 18th, and Friday October 24th, 1913, as Arbor and Bird days in Illinois. This innovation in naming two days on which the observance may be held is due to the difference in climate between the northern and the southern parts of the state. In the extreme south the day will be observed in April, while in the Northern portion the observance will be on the latter date.

In his proclamation Governor Dunne asks the municipal authorities to encourage the proper observance of the day by planting trees and shrubbery along public streets and in public places. Teachers and pupils in the schools of the state are also urged to properly observe the day.

PRINCETON MEN HONOR WILSON

IN HONOR OF PRES-ELECT

Graduates of Princeton University
From All Parts of the Country Met Their Former President Informally
—Wilson Makes Brief Talk.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 3.—President-elect Wilson was given a Princeton welcome to the national capitol tonight, a welcome that brought reminiscences of his many years as president of Princeton university. The occasion was a smoker at which graduates from all parts of the country gathered.

For an hour the president-elect was the center of a wild demonstration of cheers and songs. He had not intended to make a speech but the enthusiasm of it all moved him so deeply that he spoke for a few minutes, expressing his thanks, confidence that the Princeton alumni had reposed in him.

"Fellows I had not expected to say anything," he said with a noticeable tremor in his voice, "because the only appropriate thing to say I can't say, because there are no words for it. There are some emotions that are very much deeper than a man's vocabulary can reach; and I have a feeling tonight that moves me very much indeed."

"We have often spoken of our comradeship, together as Princeton men, and I have spoken so often that I am ashamed to repeat it almost, of the part that Princeton has played in public life and the part that she ought to play in public life and I have spoken so often of that sense of having a great, invisible brotherhood that binds a man by uncommon standards of honor and service."

"Now I stand here on the eve of attempting a great task—a profoundly great one—and know that there are so many men in the United States who know me and understand to whom I do not have to explain anything. Members of the family do not have to be told what is going to happen and therefore it is not necessary to make a speech to the family."

"I have only to say that my feeling tonight is a family feeling of being among men trained as I was trained, looking out upon life as I look out upon it, and ready to give me that sympathy which buoy's a man up more than anything else in the world. I thank God that it is so, and thank you profoundly for this evidence of it."

Prolonged cheering followed the speech and the singing of "Old Nassau," Princeton's historic anthem. The president-elect stood on a little platform and joined in the singing, moving his upraised hand to and fro in the refrain of the song as Princeton men are accustomed to do.

When Mr. Wilson arrived after passing through a big street crowd he passed through a lane on both sides of which the alumni stood cheering and yelling. The president-elect was escorted to a platform, where Henry Clay Stewart, '84, president of the local alumni association, and Mr. Justice Malinon Pease, '89, of the United States supreme court, presented him with a ribbon-tied package of cigars and a cigarette.

"Locomotive" cheers were given with a vim for Wilson and Princeton, and soon the entire crowd of alumni formed a line and shook hands. Many of those present were in the uniform of the Essex cavalry troop which tomorrow will escort Mr. Wilson and Squadron A of the First Regiment of New York, made up largely of Princeton men.

Many of Mr. Wilson's own class of 1879 were present, including Cyrus McCormick of Chicago, William P. Wilder of New York and Robert Bridges of New York.

As the graduates filed by, Stanley Hunter, '10, who has been a missionary in India, gave Mr. Wilson a tiger's tooth for good luck, which the president-elect has now added to his collection of rabbits' feet, horse chestnuts and other lucky symbols.

In the crowd of Princeton men were a few who had figured conspicuously in the campaign. William F. McCormick, and Rolla Wells, '76, the Democratic national treasurer, and Senator Pomerene, '89, of Ohio, were cheered enthusiastically by the Princetonians.

The smoker closed with the singing of "Old Nassau" once more, followed by "America."

BROWN WHIPS KETCHEL.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 3.—Pal Brown of Hibbing, Minn., made a chopping block of Steve Ketchell of Chicago in a ten round bout here tonight.

Brown led all the way landing at will, Ketchell being unable to stop the Gopher's jabs, which landed frequently on his jaw.

RETIRES MANY VETERANS

WASHINGTON, MARCH 3.—Overshadowed by the enthusiasm attending the arrival of a Democratic president-elect and the holding of a suffrage carnival, the sixty-second congress to day began to say its farewells, and to prepare for the termination of its business at noon tomorrow.

By a fiction of long standing, the "legislative day" of March 3rd will run through the night and terminate shortly before noon tomorrow with the impressive ceremonies attending the inauguration of Vice-President Marshall. Retiring members who have been in congress for a score or more of years, bade good bye to their colleagues tonight and cleaned out their desks for the exodus from the capitol. Scores of new senators and representatives who are to come into office tomorrow mingled throughout the day with their future associates of the two houses and took mental stock of their environment and friends in the new Democratic congress.

Many Veterans Retire.

Former Speaker Cannon and Senator Shelby M. Cullom, veterans of many congresses, Representatives Nicholas Longworth, John Dalzell, John M. Lamb, Samuel M. McCall, Senators Crane, Dixon, Bourne and others who have been prominently identified with legislation in recent years, were the recipients of farewell greetings from their associates. The house spent a few moments in eulogizing Representative Lamb of Virginia who has been chairman of the agricultural committee for the last two years, the friendly demonstration being led by Republican Leader Mann.

Both houses recessed at 6 o'clock tonight, the senate for two hours and the house for three. They were prepared to sit well through the night if necessary to dispose of conference reports or late in the evening that both houses would be able to recess for a few hours during the early morning.

Six Bills in Dispute.

Six appropriation bills remained in dispute when the evening sessions began and serious fights were threatened over the two battleship program in the naval bill, and over the Indian, public buildings, executive and sundry civil bills. Notice had been issued in the senate early in the evening by Senator Hoke Smith that he would talk all night and until tomorrow noon if necessary to prevent any affirmative action being taken on the workmen's compensation bill. Coupled with this a threatened filibuster was another led by Senator Fall of New Mexico. He also promised to talk the all congress out rather than permit it to approve the Indian appropriation bill in the form agreed upon in the conference committee. His fight was against the provision directing the removal into New Mexico of the Apache Indian, now prisoners of war at Fort Sill, Okla.

The tense feeling usually characteristic of the close of a short session of congress was noticeably absent tonight. Democrats of the senate, fighting President Taft's appointments as the end, had succeeded in preventing action upon all civil appointments and the senate took up its work behind closed doors again tonight to complete action on the army appointments which have been in dispute.

Little feeling was exhibited in the senate, however, over either the filibusters or the confirmation fight. It was the belief of leaders of the two houses early tonight that none of the appropriation bills would fail with the possible exception of the public building bill and the naval bills, and if these should not be passed they would be re-introduced in the special session to be called by President Wilson April 1st.

Distinguished visitors appeared on the floors of both houses during the day. Governors Sulzer of New York, Cox of Ohio and McCreary of Kentucky, among them. Senator-elect Vandaman of Mississippi was a picturesque figure in the senate in the afternoon. Senator-elect Norris of Nebraska; James of Kentucky; Randall of Louisiana and Weeks of Massachusetts, all present members of the house held receptions to their colleagues during the evening and packed their books and papers preparatory to moving to the other end of the capitol.

Deadlock Unbroken.

Another effort to secure an agreement by the house to the senate amendment to the naval appropriation bill providing for two battleships, and thus break the deadlock in conference on the measure failed shortly after mid-night. The

TAFT'S LAST DAY IS A BUSY ONE

DAY IS CROWNED WITH UN-USUAL EVENTS

Bids Farewell to Hundreds of Officials.
Signs Name to Many Pictures and Letters, Holds Three Receptions
and Receives President-Elect.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 3.—President Taft's last day in the white house was one of his busiest. As a working day it didn't last more than ten hours, but it was crowded with unusual events, full of incidents that fall to the man who sits in the white house and crowned with pleasanties. The president shook hands with several hundred citizens and officials of the government, received scores of telegrams from friends from all over the world, signed his name to pile after pile of pictures and letters, and held three receptions.

He quit the room he has occupied for four years with a smile.

Meets Old Friends.

He met his old time friends of the Washington diplomatic corps and justices of the supreme court in the white house and last of all he gave the first formal welcome in that mansion to President-elect and Mrs. Wilson.

Tonight the president and Mrs. Taft were guests at a private dinner given by Miss Mabel Boardman. Altogether, as Mr. Taft told visitors to day, it was one of the happiest days of his life, and the regret he may have had over things he was unable to accomplish was more than offset by the remembrance of the pleasant paths he has walked. The president received the president-elect and Mrs. Wilson at 6 o'clock tonight. Colonel Spencer Cosby, chief aid to the president, had sent his own touring car to bring them through the crowded thoroughfares. A few hundred persons gathered in front of the mansion cheered when they recognized the next president and his wife. On the bronze seat of the United States imbedded deep in the marble floor of the main hallway President Taft was waiting to receive his guests. He offered his arm to Mrs. Wilson and escorted the next "First Lady of the Land" to the green room.

Mrs. Taft and Miss Helen, the only members of the retiring president's family in town, came down the stairway from the private part of the white house a few moments later and the president-to-be, his wife, and the president who quits tomorrow, and his wife and daughter, talked alone.

Bryan Also a Visitor.

William Jennings Bryan was one of the last distinguished visitors who saw the president in his office. Col. Bryan came unannounced late in the afternoon.

"Here's something I want to show you," said the president, as he grasped his visitor by the arm and led him to the cabinet room.

"This," continued the president, "is the cabinet room."

Mr. Bryan sat down in the chair of the secretary of state, but he made no comment.

"I just dropped in to say farewell," he told the newspaper men as he departed. "I have many Republican friends as well as those in the Democratic party."

Before he left his office for the last time the president shook hands with the members of the executive office staff.

CAPTAIN BECK AND HIS ASSISTANT RESIGN

Appointment of Beck's Successor Will Probably Form Test Suit on Which Commission Will Go To Court.

Springfield, Ill., March 3.—Both Captain Beck, superintendent of the capitol building and his assistant, Captain Neal resigned to day. They came to Springfield in 1897, following the election of John R. Tanner as governor.

The appointment of a successor to Captain Beck probably will furnish the test of which civil service commission will go into court with Secretary of State Harry Woods to test the amendment of 1911, to the state civil service law.

A report was published to day to the effect that Senator Keller was going to Washington in the interest of Colonel Lewis' candidacy for the United States senate. It was stated tonight, however, that the report was incorrect.

SENDS CABINET NAMES TO SENATE TODAY

WILSON WILL ANNOUNCE SELECTION
THIS AFTERNOON

Lane is Slated For Secretary of Interior; Garrison of War; Houston of Agriculture—Complete Cabinet Slate As Predicted.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 3.—Though President-elect Wilson will not send the names of his cabinet to the senate until tomorrow afternoon, authoritative information as to its personnel came to the members of his official family when he arrived today. Washington now accepts the following statement as constituting the final selections of the president-elect:

Secretary of state—William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska.
Secretary of treasury—William G. McAdoo of New York.
Secretary of war—Lindley M. Garrison of New Jersey.

Attorney general—James McReynolds of Tennessee.
Postmaster general—Representative Burleson of Texas.

Secretary of the navy—Josephus Daniels of North Carolina.

Secretary of the interior—Franklin Lane of California.

Secretary of agriculture—David F. Houston of Missouri.

Secretary of commerce—Representative William C. Redfield of New York.

Secretary of labor—Representative William B. Wilson of Pennsylvania.

Many of these names have been known for several days and chief interest centered in the revelation of those who would receive the portfolios of war, agriculture and interior.

The selection of Vice-Chancellor Garrison of New Jersey to be secretary of war is in line with the idea the president-elect has always had that the secretary of war should be a man of unusual administrative ability. Supervision of the island possessions of the United States including the Philippines and the Panama zone will be important factors under the new administration and this burden will fall on the head of the war department. Vice-Chancellor Garrison is a close friend of Mr. Wilson and is regarded as one of the best men New Jersey has ever elevated to the bench.

Franklin Lane's experience as interstate commerce commissioner, it is assumed, has fitted him for executive and judicial tasks in administering and directing the public land policy of the country.

NINTH CAVALRY NOW ON BORDER PATROL DUTY

Precautionary Means is Taken to Prevent Repetition of Sunday's Skirmish.

Douglas, Ariz., March 3.—As a precautionary means of preventing a repetition of the skirmish Sunday between American and Mexican troops, Colonel Guilfoyle tonight has nearly the whole force of the ninth cavalry on border patrol duty. He also sent a gun patrol to the border.

Colonel Guilfoyle sent to Washington to day a report supplementary to the battle report yesterday. It is said that the report contains a copy of the message from which was found in the possession of the messenger arrested Saturday from the Maderista junta in which there was a plan outlined for a union of the rebels. It is said, the plot was to attack Douglas and Augua Prieta at the same time. The message is said to have contained violent anti-American statements.

One warrant has been issued for a prominent Mexican resident who has disappeared.

Shoot Over Line.

El Paso, Texas, March 3.—Mexican soldiers on patrol duty on the Mexican side early to day fired a few shots over the international line. The bullets fell in Washington Park, three miles east of El Paso. No one was injured.

Colonel Juan N. Vasquez, commander of the Juarez Garrison declared to day that none of his troops were in the neighborhood of the shooting and that he has received no report of the incident.

It stated that the reports of affairs between Mexican and American troops at Douglas has had no effect on the Juarez garrison. Col Vasquez intimated that perhaps rural police had done the shooting.

NO RAIN OR SNOW TO MAR INAUGURATION

Experts in Weather Bureau at Washington Say Fair Weather Will Prevail.

Washington, March 3.—There will be no rain or snow or freezing temperature to mar the inauguration of Woodrow Wilson as president of the United States, according to the prediction of the experts of the weather bureau. A special inauguration bulletin issued by the bureau tonight said:

The indications are that the weather at Washington on Tuesday will be fair in the morning, cloudy in the afternoon and become unsettled and somewhat colder at night. There is very little probability of either rain or snow. Temperature during the day will be moderate, probably in the forties.

WOMEN FIGHT WAY THRU MOB

SUBJECTED TO MANY INSULTS

WASHINGTON, MARCH 3.—Five thousand women, marching in the woman suffrage pageant today, practically fought their way foot by foot up Pennsylvania avenue through a surging mob that completely defied the Washington police, swamped the marchers and broke their procession into little companies. The women, trudging stoutly along under great difficulties, were able to complete their march only when troops of cavalry from Fort Myer were rushed into Washington to take charge of Pennsylvania avenue. No inauguration has ever produced such scenes, which in many instances amounted to nothing less than riots.

Hold Indignation Meeting.

Later in Continental hall the women turned what was to have been a suffrage demonstration into an indignation meeting, in which the Washington police were roundly denounced for their inactivity, and resolutions were passed calling upon President-elect Wilson and the incoming congress to make an investigation and locate the responsibility for the indignities the marchers suffered. Miss Helen Keller, the noted deaf and blind girl, was so excited and unmoved by the experience in attempting to reach a grandstand where she was to have been a guest of honor that she was unable to speak later at Continental hall.

Fight Way Through Crowd.

The scenes which attended the entry of "General" Rosalie E. Jones and her "hikers" on Thursday, when the bedraggled women had to fight their way up Pennsylvania avenue swamped by a mob with which a few policemen struggled in vain, were repeated today but upon a vastly larger scale. The marchers had to fight their way from the start, and took more than one hour in making the first ten blocks. Many of the women were in tears under the jibes and insults of the mob that lined the route.

Ropes Do Little Good.

Although stout wire ropes had been stretched up and down the length of Pennsylvania avenue from the Peace monument to the Mall behind the white house, the enormous crowds that gathered early to obtain points of vantage overstepped them or crawled beneath. Apparently no effort was made to drive back the trespassers in early hours, with the result that when the parade started it faced at almost every hundred yards a solid wall of humanity.

On the whole it was a hostile crowd through which the women marched. Miss Inez Muholland, herald of the procession, distinguished herself by aiding in riding down a mob that blocked the way and threatened to disrupt the parade. Another woman member of the "petticoat cavalry" struck a hoodlum a stinging blow across the face with her riding crop in reply to a scurrilous remark as she was passing. The mounted police rode hither and yon, but seemed powerless to stem the tide of humanity.

White House Party Leaves.

A group of hoodlums gathered in front of the reviewing stand in which sat Mrs. Taft and Miss Helen Taft and a half dozen invited guests from the white house. They kept up a running fire of caustic comment. Apparently no effort was made to remove them, and, evidently disgusted, the white house party left before the procession had passed in its halting and interrupted journey toward Continental hall, where a mass meeting was held.

The tableaux on the steps of the treasury building, framed in the great columns and the board stairway of the treasury house were begun when the parade started.

Beautiful in coloring and grouping, the dramatic symbolization of women's aspirations for political freedom was completed long before the head of the parade was in sight. In their thin dresses and bare arms, the performers waited, shivering, for more than an hour until finally they were forced to seek refuge within the big building.

Around the treasury department the crowds were massed so tightly that repeated charges by the police were seemingly ineffective.

It was as though the blue-coats charged a stone wall. Occasionally the mob gave way in one place only to break over and under the wire hedge at some other.

Cavalry Clears Way.

When the cavalry suddenly appeared there was a wild outburst of applause in the rescuing station. The men in brown virtually brushed aside the mounted and foot police and took charge. In two lines the

WILSON READY TO TAKE OATH (Continued From Page One.)

After the new president has delivered his address, the inaugural parade will wind its way through streets lined with cheering humanity to the white house.

Mr. Taft will ride with the new president, bidding him farewell as soon as they reach the end of the journey.

The parade will then halt, while the presidential party is at luncheon, to proceed again through the court of honor when the president and vice-president reach the reviewing stand about two o'clock. By 5 o'clock the inauguration of Woodrow Wilson will have been history.

Students Meet Wilson.
President-elect Wilson's arrival in Washington was quite similar to his departure from Princeton. Students of Princeton university formed a narrow lane stretching from the train steps to the president's room in Union Station. There was deep silence as the president-elect followed by members of his family walked through the avenue formed by the students. The latter stood with their hats off. Mr. Wilson also doffed his silk hat. Walking with him were William Corcoran Eustis, chairman of the inaugural committee, and Thomas Nelson Page, chairman of the Wilson reception committee. In the president's room Mr. Wilson was introduced to the fifty members of the reception committee while the students grouped themselves on the esplanade just outside the station. Here, as Mr. Wilson got into an automobile, cheer after cheer came from the Princeton students. First they gave the "locomotive cheer" with its "sis boom ah," for Wilson, and then for "Princeton." They alternated this with a thundering roar until the president-elect started away.

Texas Ranger On Hand.
The first person to greet the president-elect and Mrs. Wilson on the steps of the hotel was Captain "Bill" McDonald, the aged Texas ranger and body guard to Mr. Wilson during the recent campaign.

"How are you?" exclaimed the president-elect and Mrs. Wilson at the same time, as they stepped rapidly forward and grasped Captain McDonald's hands.

The captain who, it frequently is said in Texas, is filled with so much lead from shooting affrays in the ranger service that he would sink if he went swimming, was overcome with joy. He wore a big feld sombrero, an incongruous companion to the silk hat of the president-elect.

"I'd never a died happy if I hadn't been here today," said Captain Bill, as he walked arm in arm into the hotel with Mr. Wilson.

The president-elect found the corridors of the hotel crowded with Princeton alumni wearing orange and black rosettes. The Wilsons went immediately to their suite on the fourth floor of the hotel where John W. Wilson, a cousin of President-elect Wilson and score of relatives were waiting to receive them.

The president-elect had been in his room but a few minutes when Vice-President-elect and Mrs. Marshall called to pay their respects.

Train Ride Pleasant.
Mr. Wilson's three and a half hour trip from Princeton to the national capital seemed like a moment to him, he said. He found aboard the train which the students had provided especially for him every comfort and convenience. They had invited also some of the intimate friends of the Wilson family, and the latter found themselves in a homelike atmosphere all the way.

Mr. Wilson sat in the rear parlor car with his family chatting most of the time with his friends. Col. Thomas H. Birch, personal aide to Mr. Wilson as governor of New Jersey appeared for the first time in gold braid uniform. It was one of the rare occasions when Mr. Wilson accompanied by a uniformed aide, and he was somewhat uneasy over it. When his chief came into the smoking compartment, the colonel rose ceremoniously.

"Don't start that," laughed Mr. Wilson good naturedly. "I'm nobody yet."

It was a happy family group on the train. With Mrs. Annie Howe, a sister of the president-elect who joined the party at West Philadelphia came her daughter, Mrs. Perrin Cotheran and grand-daughter, Josephine. The Cotheran baby is a favorite with the president-elect and probably will be a frequent visitor at the white house. Little Josephine was the object of much attention from the family and when the train stopped at Baltimore she occupied a conspicuous place at the window from which vantage point she struck up an immediate acquaintance with the crowd.

THAW REPORTED OF UNSOUND MIND
Albany, N. Y., March 3.—Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White is still of unsound mind and his release from the Matteawan state hospital would be dangerous to the public peace and safety, according to an affidavit made today by Attorney General Carmody by Dr. Roy L. Leake, acting superintendent of the hospital. The affidavit will be used as the state's return to the writ of habeas corpus obtained last Saturday directing the state to produce Thaw to produce Justice Giegarish, in New York Thursday and show cause why Thaw should not be given his freedom.

CHARGED WITH BLACKMAIL.
Chicago, March 3.—Mrs. Maude Stewart, of Ando, Wis., a social leader and wife of a prominent merchant, was arrested by federal detectives here today charged with sending a blackmailing letter to Mrs. H. E. Van Ostrand, a rival social leader. Mrs. Stewart collapsed when United States Commissioner Foote held her in $3,000 bond.

DESCRIPTION OF NEW METHODIST CHURCH AT FRANKLIN

Structure Will Be Commodious and Modern in Every Way—Contract to Be Let Soon.

It is probable that a contract will be let today for the construction of the new Methodist church in Franklin. The church will be 58 feet by 58 feet in size, built of Bedford brick, stone trimmings and Tudor Gothic in style of architect, with a tower on the southeast.

The main auditorium will have a bowled floor and will be 45 feet by 45 feet. Opening into the main auditorium will be the large Sunday school room, 22 feet by 28 feet. About this will be the individual class rooms. Here will also be the ladies parlors and a space will be left for the installation of a pipe organ. The minor entrance to the church will be on the south side near the center of the building and easy access can be made to the various apartments of the church. The basement will be water proof, finished in birch like the first floor. There will be two entrances one on the south side and one on the north. The main entrance will be on the south. In the basement will be the cloak room, social room, dining room, reading room containing a fire place, fuel room, boiler room, kitchen, pantry and storage room. There will also be memorial windows and the entire building will be lighted by electricity and steam heat used. It is expected that work will be commenced early in order to have the building completed by September.

The building committee is composed of J. B. Burch, president; M. R. Keplinger, secretary; George E. Brown, Dr. J. B. Perkins, J. P. Wood and Rev. Peter Kittle, the pastor.

The following are trustees of the church—Messrs. Charles Olinger, Alex Van Winkle, W. S. Cross, H. G. Keplinger, M. B. Keplinger, W. C. Calhoun, F. T. Miller, Newton Woods and M. A. VanWinkle.

WITH THE SICK.

Abe Shumaker of Saldora spent Sunday with his son Clay at Passavant hospital. The young man was accidentally shot some weeks since.

William Nunes has been confined to his home on East Independence avenue for the past week by sickness but is now improving and will probably be out within a few days.

Miss Clara Eck was detained at home yesterday on account of illness.

Miss Mary Smith, of 313 South Diamond street, who has been ill for the past two weeks, was able to sit up yesterday.

Mrs. R. C. Henley was able to return to her home yesterday after being confined for five weeks in Dr. J. A. Day's hospital.

Mrs. Fred Woodward who has been ill several days is able to be about again.

Miss Irene DeFreitas of 1116 Hackett avenue is a patient at Our Savior's hospital. On account of trouble with her throat it was found necessary to remove her tonsils.

Friends of W. E. Baker have been advised that he is seriously ill at his home in Davenport, Iowa, with little chance of recovery.

Mrs. S. E. Babb whose illness has been mentioned before is now in a critical condition at her West College avenue home.

GIVEN PLEASANT SURPRISE

A very pleasant surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Butler Saturday evening at their home six miles south of Jacksonville. Everyone brought oysters with all the trimmings and a genuine social evening was enjoyed.

The following were among those present: Mr. and Mrs. Claude Winters and daughters, Inez and Alma; Mr. and Mrs. Porter Bell and daughter Pauline; Mrs. Amanda Watt, Mrs. Louis Wall and daughter Lettie; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Grinnett and son George; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Watt and family, John Butler, Edwita Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shoemaker and daughter Marie.

STRIKERS NOT SATISFIED.

New York, March 3.—Ten thousand Garment Workers' dissatisfied with the settlement made with their employers Friday by the leaders of their recent strike, paraded through the streets today as a protest against the settlement. A mass meeting in Union Square followed, at which the terms of settlement were denounced and a resolution adopted declaring the determination of the workers present to remain on strike until their union is recognized and all other demands granted.

ABLE TO BE AT STORE.

For the first time in seven weeks Lee Allcott, the east side druggist, was able to be at his store. He is still on crutches but expressed himself delighted to be down town once more. Mr. Allcott sustained a double fracture of his leg on Jan. 13.

HAD EAR INJURED.

William E. Galom, an employee in the boiler department of the C. P. & St. L. shops had his left ear badly bruised Monday afternoon, as the result of a portion of a chisel striking him on the head.

FARMER MURDERED.

Centralia, Ill., March 3.—The body of A. J. Smothers, a farmer in Marion county, Illinois, today was found in a ravine two miles from his farm. Seven hundred and fifty dollars, which Smothers had with him when last he was seen alive were missing.

Smothers disappeared two weeks ago. At that time he left for Salem, Ill., to record the sale of his farm and to deposit $750 in the bank. He never reached Salem.

HIGH PRICED ANIMALS.

R. Y. Gibson expressed two head of fine Jerseys Monday to B. C. Settles of Palmyra, Mo. One was a calf and brought $75; the other was one year old and brought $200.

NEW OFFICE BUILDING FOR ILLINOIS STEEL BRIDGE COMPANY

Structure Will Be Pleasing in Appearance and Modernly Equipped—Work to Be Commenced as Soon as Weather Permits.

The new office building of the Illinois Steel Bridge company promises to be a most substantial and commodious structure, and it is expected a contract for its construction will be let in a few days and work will be commenced as soon as the weather permits.

The building will be 25 feet by 48 feet, two stories high with a basement. The exterior will be of Persian brick stone and stucco trimmed along the English style. The roof will be asbestos shingles gray in color, the whole building given a color scheme like to a Persian rug.

On the first floor will be the offices of the time keeper, vice-president, assistant secretary, directors. There will be a large bay window in the vice president's room overlooking the whole plant. The second floor will be used for drafting, large star light windows furnishing light. In the basement on the first and second floors will extend the large vault.

The basement will be concreted and the building will be steam heated, equipped with electric lights and modern in every way. The entrance to the building will be covered and imposing in appearance.

The building will be erected on the site of the present office. The old office building will be moved to some other location of the plant and used for a storage house. C. W. Buckingham prepared the plans.

Instruments Show Big Business.
Tuesday was another busy day for County Recorder E. D. Pyatt and his deputies as twenty-six documents were recorded. The consideration stated in warranty deeds recorded Monday amounted to $99,480 and the mortgages to $40,500. Saturday the warranty deed considerations given footed up to $195,170 and the mortgages $101,220. There were besides of course a great many deeds in which the consideration was given simply as one dollar.

Watch for the announcement of Herman's grand extraordinary Easter opening.
GIVEN BIRTHDAY PARTY.
Mrs. Edward C. Moses entertained a company of young people at her home, 501 North Fayette street Monday afternoon, the occasion being in honor of the eighth birthday of her daughter, Melva. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent with games and during the hours dainty refreshments were served. The color scheme was in green and white and each guest was presented with a souvenir. The little guest of honor was the recipient of quite a number of beautiful presents. Among those present were: Wilma Bernadine Moses of Concord, Helen Walton, Doroth Cully, Mrs. Lee Kettering, Helen Richards, Florence Jolly, Lois and Helen Harney, Florence Arb, Toinette Cully, Helen Kamm, Ruth Jordan, John Pyatt, Frank Cohen, Harold Kamm, Thomas and Charles Galtens, Chester and Delmar Domke, Byron Craig Edward Cully and Arnold Baird.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS.
The regular meeting of the Young Woman's Missionary society of Centenary church was held Monday evening at the residence of Mrs. C. A. Patten and Mrs. Hyer, 1004 South Main street, and these ladies were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. E. E. Wells. The devotional exercises were led by Miss Clara Ranson after which the members sang "Blest Be The Tie That Binds." Miss Gertrude Atkins presented a well prepared paper on "The Church in China" which was followed by a piano solo by Mildred Patten and one by Mrs. Hyer. Following the program a delightful social hour was enjoyed and Victrola music was furnished by Paul Wells. The hostesses served delicious refreshments, the color scheme being in keeping with St. Patrick's day.

WILL TALK OVER DIFFERENCES.
A meeting has been called for Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock to which republicans and Progressives are invited. The purpose is to talk over county affairs with a view to acting as a unit in county candidacies. The meeting is to be held in the assembly room at the Ayers National bank. It is not the intention to discuss any political matters relating to the state or the nation, but simply the county.

CIGAR FACTORY IS PROSPERING.
Decker & Salby, distributors for the E. N. Salby cigar factory, are building up a very satisfactory business on the Kenwood cigar. The sales on this cigar are increasing each day as smokers are finding it a cigar of unusually fine quality and in every way an excellent five cent smoke. Great care is used in the manufacture of these cigars in order to have them uniformly good and any smoker who has failed to try a Kenwood is missing something delightful.

Watch for the announcement of Herman's grand extraordinary Easter opening.
PROPERTY CHANGES.
According to the terms of a three cornered real estate deal that was consummated Monday, three pieces of city property changed hands. Miss Carrie Spires getting the Gunn property at 222 South Clay avenue, Mrs. Lillian Gunn the Laney residence at 1215 South East street and Chas. Laney the Spires residence at 1326 South Main street. DRY GOODS STOREWELL KNOWN PRESBYTERIAN MINISTER RESIGNS PULPIT.

Rev. T. D. Logan of Springfield Must Give up Work Because of Ill Health.

Officials of the First Presbyterian church in Springfield have received the resignation of their pastor, Rev. Thomas D. Logan, who has been ill for several months in the state of Wisconsin, where he has been on temporary leave. During his absence the pulpit has been in charge of Rev. C. P. Goodson, who has a call to go east and will take his departure within a month. Dr. Logan is known as dean of the Springfield clergy, as represented in the Ministerial association. He is one of the best known pastors in Illinois and has been identified with the pastorate in Springfield since 1888. For many years he has been chairman of the board of trustees of Blackburn college at Carlinville and has been prominent in church activities in the state at large as well as in his local church.

HAD SUCCESSFUL SALE.

Young ladies from the home economic department of Illinois Woman's college baked cookies all day Monday in the display window at Taylor's West State street grocery. The young ladies were all dressed in white and looked attractive indeed engaged in their culinary work. They did the baking on a gas range and the patronage was so liberal that they had a difficult time keeping up with the demand. A goodly sum was realized to help along with the endowment pledge made by the department.

NO, I HAVE NOT SOLD OUT, BUT CONTINUE IN BUSINESS AT THE OLD STAND.

Through a misconception of the announcements recently made, a great many people get the idea that I have sold out and that Mr. Babbs has taken my stand. The facts are that through a mutual agreement I gave Mr. Babbs space to show his cars, and, as Mr. Babbs would need the services of an expert mechanic, he selected our garage, knowing that we have in our employ only the best. Respectfully,

WANT FARMERS ELEVATOR IN JACKSONVILLE

Meeting to Be Held at Court House For Purpose of Talking Over Plans—Addresses by State Officials of Grain Dealers Association.

A meeting will be held at the Court House Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, by the farmers of Jacksonville and vicinity for the purpose of organizing a Farmers' Elevator company in this city. While there are Farmers' Elevator companies in other parts of the county, there are several who are interested in having one closer to home.

Several well known farmers and business men who are interested in the project and it is expected that the meeting will be largely attended. Addresses will be made by A. C. Rice, Thomas Cain, officers of the State Grain Dealers Association, which has just completed a three days assembly in Jacksonville. It is also expected that another member or two of the executive officers of the association will be present, and heard in addresses.

If the plans work out, it is expected that the elevator will be a large one, capable of handling all the customers of this section who might become patrons of the company.

Farmers elevators are now at Arnold, Litchberry, Chapin, Rees Crossing, Strawn's Crossing and Prentice. Since the convention was here requests have come from Murrayville, Jacksonville and Merritt for the Association to aid them in organizing. It will be remembered that the elevator in Merritt was recently burned to the ground.

Alexander is soon to have a Farmers elevator. Nearly all the stock has been subscribed and will amount to $10,000.

House conferees reported a disagreement and Representative Foss of Illinois moved that the house agree to the two battleship proposition. Majority Leader Underwood led the debate against the two battleship amendment. On a roll call the house voted to insist on its one battleship provision 168 to 144. The house requested a further conference.

Adopts Conference Report.
The senate adopted the conference report on the post office bill by a vote of 47 to 12 without making any change in the mail pay or the "blue tag" provision. As the measure had already been approved by the house it was prepared at once for submission to the president. The senate then took up the public buildings bill in another effort to pass that measure as it came from the conference committee.

The galleries of the senate and house were still filled with spectators at midnight.

A further conference on the public buildings failed to overcome many of the obstacles that had threatened the defeat of the bill in the senate.

Political Love Feast.
During a general political love feast in the house tonight the Republicans of that body presented a gift of a watch to Representative James R. Mann of Illinois, the minority leader and the Democrats presented a silver fruit dish to Charles Crisp, parliamentary clerk, who enters the next house as a member from Georgia. A recess of 15 minutes was taken by the house to allow time for the presentation and the members crowded about the well of the house and joined the gallery in a storm of applause.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon former speaker, presented the watch to Mr. Mann and lauded the conduct of the minority leader throughout the present session. Speaker Champ Clark joined in the eulogy of Mr. Mann and then presented fruit dish to Mr. Crisp.

Attacks Government Policy
Ann attack on the policy pursued by the United States in patrolling the Mexican border during the Mexican revolution was made in the senate to day by Senator Fall of New Mexico, a member of the special investigation committee that has conducted a recent investigation into border conditions.

Senator Fall declared that the committee, in its investigation the border from San Diego, Cal., to New Orleans, had come in contact frequently with cases where the armed forces of the United States had been used to arrest American citizens on American soil.

"The American troops have been used to oppress American citizens in their own country," Senator Fall said, "instead of being used to protect them when they were being robbed and murdered on this side of the border line. Americans have been thrown into prison and deprived of life and liberty."

"This is not a single instance, but a condition that has been general along the border for over a year. Senator Fall reviewed in some detail the testimony taken by the special committee of which Senator Smith of Michigan was chairman. He said that scores of witnesses resident in Mexico testified to the fact that they had been attacked simply because of their American citizenship. The United States he said had extended no protection to these people."

"We would be much more justified in sending troops into Mexico than we were in sending marines into Nicaragua," he declared.

TEXAS LEGISLATURE RESUMES
Austin, Texas, March 3.—After a recess of two weeks, due to the spread of the spinal meningitis epidemic, the Texas legislature reassembled for business today. While there are still numerous cases of the dread malady in the city, it is believed the no further interruption of the sessions of the legislature will be necessary.

THREE DEAD AS RESULT OF FAMILY QUARREL

Husband Unable to Affect Reconciliation Shots Wife, Man Who Attempts to Interfere and Later Suicide.

East St. Louis, Ill., March 3.—Christian Sweitzer, 36 years old and his wife, 34 are dead and Clinton Vernon a young man is dying as the result of Sweitzer's attempt tonight to effect a reconciliation with his wife from whom he had been separated a month.

Sweitzer who was a livestock operator went to the home of his wife's sister, Mrs. Cada Finger, with whom his wife was staying. Failing to persuade her to return to him he drew a revolver and shot her dead. Vernon, a boarder, who was in an adjoining room rushed into the room where the shooting took place, and Sweitzer fired at him, inflicting a wound which physicians say will be fatal.

Sweitzer returned to his own boarding house and going to the parlor shot himself through the heart.

THE CUTTLEFISH.

Its Queer Ink Sac and Its Ability to Change Its Color.

Septa is a peculiar animal substance obtained from the ink bags or ink sacs of cuttlefish.

The cuttlefish are a group of slug-like sea creatures allied to snails, oysters and other so called "shell fish." The cuttlefish has a sort of shell beneath the skin (sold under the name of "cuttlebone"), a pair of large eyes and a horny beak. Like all molluscs, they have no real limbs at all, but from around the head there spring eight or ten long tentacles, each armed with numerous suckers.

By forcibly squirting out the sea water which it has taken in the septa can shoot backward through the water with great speed. The septa is interesting, too, as being able to change its color in a measure so as to harmonize with its surroundings. Just under the topmost layer of skin there are distributed all over the surface of the body a number of cells, containing a dark pigment. When these cells are expanded the surface of the body becomes darkly spotted, but as they are contracted the creature looks paler.

Though best developed in the septa and its nearest allies, nearly every member of the cuttlefish group possesses an ink sac. The ink sac contains the dark pigment secreted by a special gland. When discovered or pursued by an enemy the septa discharges some of its ink through a sort of funnel or tube. The pigment mixes with water very quickly and forms a dark cloud of ink, water, beyond which the septa will dart into safety.

Septas are often caught in nets with fish. The fishermen, despising the cuttlefish, throw them out upon the beach, and then they may be seen lying in tiny pools of dense black liquid and continually oozing out more ink in a vain attempt at concealment.—Chicago Tribune.

BROKE IT GENTLY.

He Didn't Know Exactly What to Do, So They Came to His Rescue.

A young author and critic, who has come to be an authority upon a certain modern phase of education, went a few days ago to deliver his first lecture at a girls' school. He had lectured before, but never at a young ladies' seminary, and as two white frocked, curly haired ushers led him out to the platform and he sat down beside the matronly principal among the women who made up the faculty and faced a sea of girls' faces he was young enough to feel a bit of embarrassment himself. It was rather difficult at first, but once the lecture was started things went all right.

He finished what he had to say and sat down. The audience and the matronly principal and the women who made up the faculty clapped their hands enthusiastically. Then the applause died down and silence settled upon the lecture hall. The young man sat on waiting for some one to say something, dimly conscious that a move of one kind or another was expected of him. But his lecture was finished. He had said all he had to say. There were no questions from faculty or students. A few of the girls began to fidget, but no one spoke.

The young man became unpleasantly aware that he was expected to do something and to do it at once, but he did not know what to do. He reflected miserably that he did not know the etiquette of a girls' school anyhow. And then there was a signal from the principal and a move in the audience, and the prettier of the two girl ushers approached him, a little embarrassed, a little shy, determined to do her duty.

"I'm so sorry, Mr. B.," she murmured, "but I'm afraid you'll have to—you'll have to start right this minute if you want to make your train!"—New York Times.

LECTURE AT LIBRARY TONIGHT
As previously announced Frank J. Heintz will make an address tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Public Library on "Back to the Farm on a City Lot." This will be a practical and valuable address and the public is invited.

TWO MORE DIE AT GALE.
Cairo, Ill., March 3.—The deaths of two more persons at Gale, Ill., and the appearance of an additional case of spinal meningitis has caused the county commissioners to re-open the special isolation hospital established there at the time of the epidemic a few months ago. The two latest meningitis victims were Anna Crawford and Frank Adams. They died Sunday.

troop charged the crowds. Evidently realizing they would be ridden down, the mobs fought their way back. When they hesitated the cavalrymen, under the orders of their officers, did not hesitate. Their horses were driven into the throngs and whirled and wheeled until hooting men and women were forced to retreat. A space was quickly cleared.

Parade Great Success.
The parade in itself, in spite of the delays, was a great success. Passing through two walls of antagonistic humanity, the marchers for the most part kept their temper. They suffered insult and closed their ears to jibes and jeers. Few faltered although several of the older women were forced to drop out from time to time. The greatest ovation probably was given to "General" Rosalie Jones, who led her little band of "hikers" from New York over rough roads and through snow and rain to march for the "cause."

"General" Jones was radiant. She carried a great bunch of American beauty roses which made a splash of scarlet against the dull brown of her hooded tramping gown.

Demand Investigation.
When the women assembled in Continental hall the first resolution adopted, to be presented to President Wilson after his inauguration tomorrow, called on him to demand of congress a thorough investigation of the causes for poor police protection which would have been a disgrace to any city but which was doubly so here, with a further demand that the responsible authorities be punished for their indifference and negligence.

The opening address by Dr. Anna Shaw, president of the National America Women's Suffrage association, was a bitter exhortation of the police.

Three hundred or more persons were hurt in the crush along Pennsylvania avenue during the parade, according to hospital estimates tonight. No serious injuries were reported but there were several broken arms and scores of painful sprains and bruises.

THEM ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide

LARGE COMPANY OF ILLINOIS COLLEGE ALUMNI GATHERED

Dr. Julian Sturtevant Sent to Chicago Banquet Cabinet Edward Beecher Carried to Jacksonville in 1830.

At the chapel exercises Monday morning at Illinois College Dr. Ram-melkamp related an interesting circumstance concerning the Chicago Alumni banquet which was held at the University Club Friday evening.
He was assigned the topic "Our Victory over Bradley", but receiving no word from the debating team he arose to make his after dinner remarks with nothing to offer the assembled alumni but hopes of victory, when at the critical moment a message arrived bearing the news of Bradley's defeat.

The meeting was a successful one,
about forty alumni being present. Dr.
Black made an address on the Illinois College medical school, a condensation of which appeared in the Journal Saturday morning. Much applause was brought forth by the fine stereopticon views with which the talk was illustrated. Besides slides regarding the medical college a number of views of the old family buildings and campus scenes were thrown on the screen.

The toastmaster of the evening was J. H. Kehoe '88. Short talks were made by J. R. Ward '73, Walter Bellotti '06, M. R. Laird '01, G. H.
Wilson '88, J. A. Meek '68, President
Rammelkamp and Prof. W. O. Beal.
The credit for the success of the banquet was due in large measure to the president of the Chicago society, Dr.
Arthur D. Black '92 and Dr. C. C.
Clement '01, the secretary.

Much interest was elicited by old relics sent by Dr. Julian Sturtevant
'54 who was unable to be present.
In his letter of regret he explained that the relic which was a small cabinet six feet by twelve inches, was carried by Edward Beecher when he made his first trip to Jacksonville in 1830. Dr. Sturtevant has donated the memento to the college at some time in the future when a proper place is provided for such relics it will be placed on exhibition.

Courtesies were exchanged during the evening with the alumni of William College who were holding a banquet in an adjoining room. A quartet was delegated to entertain Williams men which they did by singing a comic version of "Sweet Adeline" called "Alfalfa Hay."

Dr. A. G. Thome '80 was elected president of the society for the next year. Dr. Clement being re-elected secretary. Resolutions of regret and sympathy were adopted on the death of Dr. Samuel Willard, for many years member of the society.

In addition to the Alumni already mentioned the following were also present: G. V. Black, Hon. '92; F.
C. Garrison, ex '00; J. A. Capas '91,
C. E. Robinson '09, M. H. Grassly
'98, H. J. Dunbaugh '99, V. J. Co-

NOTES FROM LABOR WORLD

Organized labor has 21 representatives in the present Ohio legislature.

State aided industrial schools are now maintained in 19 Massachusetts communities.

The officers of the International Typographical union are preparing a history of that organization from its formation in 1859 to the present time.

Robert Glockling, president of the International Brotherhood of Bookbinders, and one of the pioneers in the labor movement in Canada, died recently in Indianapolis.

The executive board of the United Mine Workers has decided to levy an assessment of $1 a member throughout the country to raise a fund to assist the strikers in Colorado and West Virginia.

The executive board of the Journeymen Tailors Union of North America recently decided by unanimous vote not to take any active part in the garment workers' strike in the various eastern cities.

Many labor organizations throughout the country are arranging elaborate programs for Memorial Sunday, which the American Federation of Labor has fixed for May 25 this year.
The day will be generally observed.

New York has joined Massachusetts in prohibiting the industrial employment of women within four weeks after childbirth, and the prohibition of the employment of women in general for more than 54 hours a week.

Because the Hod Carriers' union of Fresno, Calif., went on strike to enforce demands for an increase in wages without first consulting the Fresno County Building Trades council the union is now threatened with expulsion.

One result of the work of the California state labor bureau during the past year has been the elimination in a large measure of child labor in that state and the laying of a firm foundation for the enforcement of the child labor laws.

Nearly two hundred thousand employees will benefit by the recent inauguration of the $10,000,000 sick benefit, insurance and pension fund which has been put into effect by the Western Union Telegraph company, the Western Electric company and the Bell Telephone company.

The I. W. W. hopes to reduce the working day of the shirt makers in Paterson, N. J., from ten to eight hours. In order to make the union of the shirt makers more effective
the cutters, operators, starchers, ironers and others employed in the industry are being brought into one organization.

Increases approximating ten per cent in the wages of railway conductors, trainmen and engineers, with improvements in certain general conditions under which the men work, are being demanded of all the railroads in eastern Canada, including the Canadian Pacific and the Grand Trunk railroads.

By referendum vote the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America has decided not to build a home for the aged and infirm members of the order, nor a home for consumptive members or a sanitarium for those afflicted with other kinds of sickness. The establishment of the proposed homes would have involved an expenditure of about $350,000, which the members considered too great a burden at the present time.

Conductor S. L. Miller, Norfolk,
Neb., on Bonesteel Division of C. &
N. W. Ry. Co., recommends Foley Kidney Pills and says: "I have used Foley Kidney Pills with very satisfactory results and endorse their use for any one afflicted with kidney trouble. They are all right." City

ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE.

Strange Story Revealed When a Dead Man's Estate Was Probated.
Here are all the elements of a romance, in which the leading features occurred in Peoria, as told by the Star:

In the probate court an inventory was filed of the estate of Edmund Van De Putte, a Belgian, and an iron molder who worked for the Kingman company and died a few weeks ago.
All his personal estate amounted to was $40, but it was wanted to pay his board bill to a poor family. Now here is where the romantic features come in:

Some years ago Van De Putte, who was otherwise known as Monk, was tried for his life on the charge of murder, in the circuit court of Peoria county and was acquitted. He and another Belgian named Rogers had gone into a fight with an Irishman named Riley in a saloon on North Adams street and they followed Riley out. A few hours later Riley was found dead at the foot of Caroline street with a small hole in the top of his head. By his side lay a board, through which ran a nail and the supposition was that he had been struck with this nail in the board, which operated as a sort of pick,
and with the board as a handle
the nail had pierced his skull and entered his brain. Van De Putte and Rogers were indicted and tried. Rogers, who could not speak a word of English, was convicted of murder and sent to the penitentiary for a term of years, while Monk was acquitted.

Rogers was a married man and had a family back in Belgium, while Monk was single. After Rogers was sent to the penitentiary Monk assumed the correspondence with his family in Belgium and each month sent them the same amount of money.
Rogers had been in the habit of sending them, and the mother and family never knew that the husband and father was in the penitentiary on a charge of murder, but always thought the money they received each month came from him.

Monk kept up this innocent and commendable deception until after five years he was released, but for Rogers had been worked and saved to maintain the family of his friend and during the entire time never missed a monthly payment, at the same time shielding them from disgrace.

A few weeks ago he died and his funeral expenses were paid by the molders' union, but he owed a board bill to a poor family and in order to get the small amount that was due him from the Kingman company it was necessary to have an administrator appointed and the same was done.

All his savings of five years have come to support the family of his friends across the seas and he died almost destitute.

MR. TAFT A GOOD LOSER.

Chicago Inter Ocean: March 6, 1909, Harper's Weekly said "Good morning, Mr. President," to William Howard Taft in a full page editorial.
In the issue of March 1, 1913, it says "Good evening, Mr. President," to the same man. Here and there is a paragraph worth quoting. For instance:

And yet, by the irony of fate, it was your lot to face a situation from which only a very great politician could have emerged with credit! You were the leader of a party which had lost its pristine virtue, which had fallen under evil influences, which was already breaking into bitterly hostile factions. You were the chosen heir of a great political charlatan, who thus left you to face the dangers he had himself avoided; of a man who, having sown the wind, permitted you, in the name of friendship, to reap the whirlwind.

Well, you have reaped it; in the language of the street, which even Shakespeare sometimes found indispensable, you have "got what was coming to you." Your party is disrupted. Your administration is accounted a failure. And the man whom you thought your best friend, and who had the most to do with your elevation, has sought to win his own way back into power on the strength of your discomfiture.

Why, then, do you ask, are not we also, and others like us, since we began as your good-wishers, now re-proaching you? The best answer, Mr. President, is the smile on your own lips, the twinkle in your eye, the undiminished sanity of your entire deportment. You have lost, but you are a good loser. You have been humiliated, but you have not whined or whimpered or sunk into melancholy. Best of all, you have not sought to throw the blame on your associates and subordinates.

Be these things as they may, there is no doubt that Mr. Taft is a good loser. He has lost so gracefully that since election he has made two friends where was one before.

Blood Bath Knocks Rheumatism

Remarkable Effects of a Remedy That Actually Irrigates the Entire Blood Supply.

It sounds queer to take a blood bath but that is precisely the effect of a most remarkable remedy known as S. S. S. It has the peculiar action of soaking through the intestines directly into the blood. In five minutes its influence is at work in every artery, vein and tiny capillary. Every membrane, every organ of the body, every emunctory becomes in effect a filter to strain the blood of impurities. The stimulating properties of S. S. S. compel the skin, liver, bowels, kidneys, bladder to all work to the end of casting out every irritating, every pain-inflicting atom of poison. It dissolves by irrigation all accumulations in the joints, dissolves acid accretions, renders them neutral and scatters those peculiar formations in the nerve centers that cause such mystifying and often baffling rheumatic pains.

And best of all, this remarkable remedy is welcome to the weakest stomach, because it is a pure vegetable infusion, is taken naturally into your blood just as pure air is inhaled naturally into your lungs.

The great Swift Laboratory has spent millions of dollars in perfecting, producing and placing in the hands of the public this wonderful remedy. So give your blood a good bath with S. S. S., for it knocks the worst forms of rheumatism every time.

You can get it at any drug store at $1.00 a bottle. It is a standard remedy, recognized everywhere as the greatest blood specific ever discovered. If you are in a peculiar case and you desire expert advice, write to The Swift Specific Co., 137 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK.

Washington, March 3.—The Presidential inauguration will be the big event of the week, overshadowing all else in interest and importance so far as the American public is concerned. The national capital is counting upon 150,000 visitors next Tuesday, when Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, will succeed William H. Taft, Republican, as President of the United States and Thomas R. Marshall will take the office of Vice President.

The programme arranged for the pageant and ceremony is virtually the same as that of other inaugurations of recent years. The two big features of the day will be the induction of the President and Vice President into office at the Capitol and the parade that will follow these ceremonies.

The programme for the ceremonies that are to accompany the swearing in of the President and Vice President starts the day's ceremonies with the inauguration of the Vice President in the senate chamber. Immediately after Mr. Marshall takes on the title of Vice President, the persons admitted to the Senate Chamber will proceed to the outdoor stand on the east front of the Capitol, where Mr. Wilson will take the oath of office and from which he will deliver his inaugural address. Then the marchers will fall in line and the parade up Pennsylvania avenue will begin.

Rivaling in public interest the inauguration parade of Tuesday will be the Suffrage parade and pageant on the preceding day. Committees that have been at work for weeks on arrangements for the suffrage parade believe that the demonstration will be the most remarkable even seen in any country in advancement of a cause.

The parade down Pennsylvania avenue will be in five divisions and will include representatives of equal suffrage organizations in every state. Many floats and picturesque features will be included. While the parade is passing there will be given an elaborate pageant on the steps of the Treasury building, illustrating the birth and progress of the battle of women for the franchise.

At the call of Chairman McCoombs the members of the Democratic National Committee will hold a special meeting in Washington on Wednesday to discuss general questions of organization.

In the Federal court in Chicago Albert C. Frost and eight associates will be placed on trial Monday on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the United States government out of Alaska coal lands valued at $10,000,000. The case has been pending five years.

A special Federal jury will convene in Chicago Wednesday to investigate alleged oleomargarine frauds, which have resulted in the loss of millions of dollars to the Federal government.

Keeps Your Stove "Always Ready for Company"

A bright, clean, glossy stove is the joy and pride of every housekeeper. But it is hard to keep a stove nice and shiny unless Black Silk Stove Polish is used. Here is the reason: Black Silk Stove Polish sticks right to the iron. It doesn't rub off or dust off. Its shine lasts four times longer than the shine of any other polish. You only need to polish one-fourth as often, yet your stove will be cleaner, brighter and better looking than it has been since you first bought it. Use on your parlor stove, kitchen stove or gas stove. Get a can from your hardware or stove dealer. If you do not find it better than any other stove polish you have ever used before, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. But we feel sure you will agree with the thousands of other up-to-date women who are now using Black Silk Stove Polish and who say it is the "best stove polish ever made."

BLACK SILK STOVE POLISH

LIQUID OR PASTE ONE QUALITY

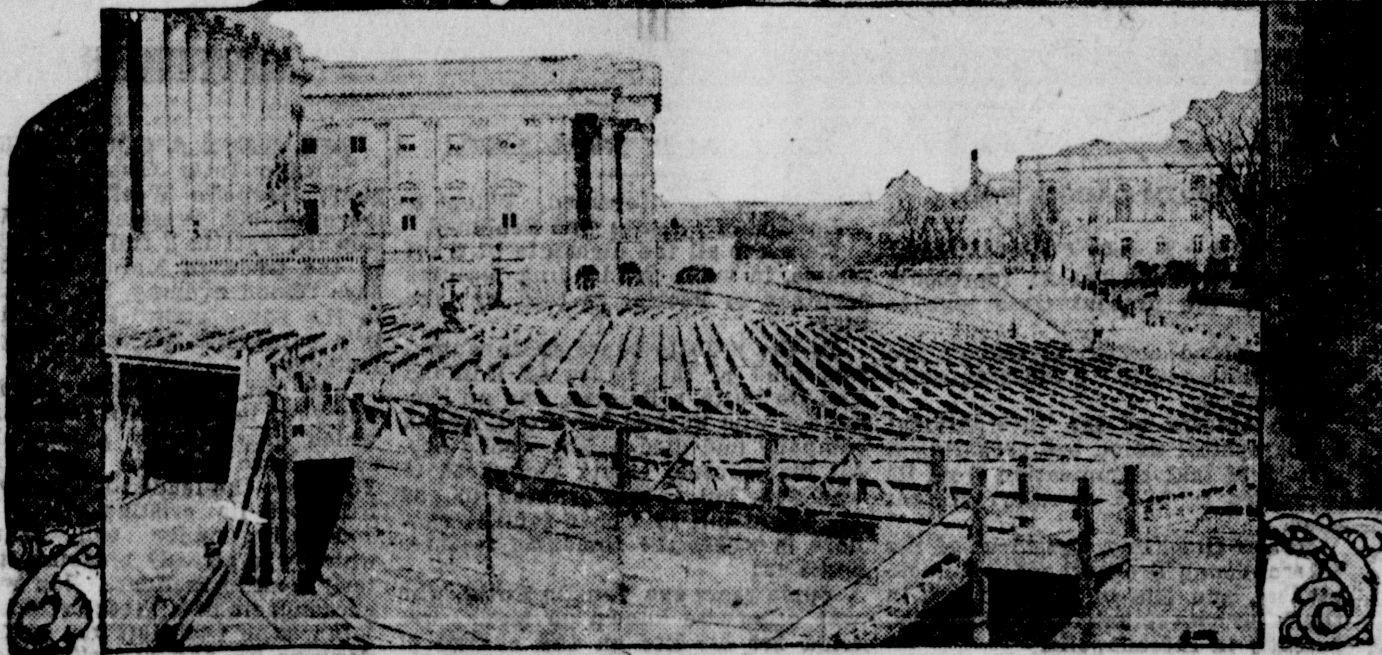

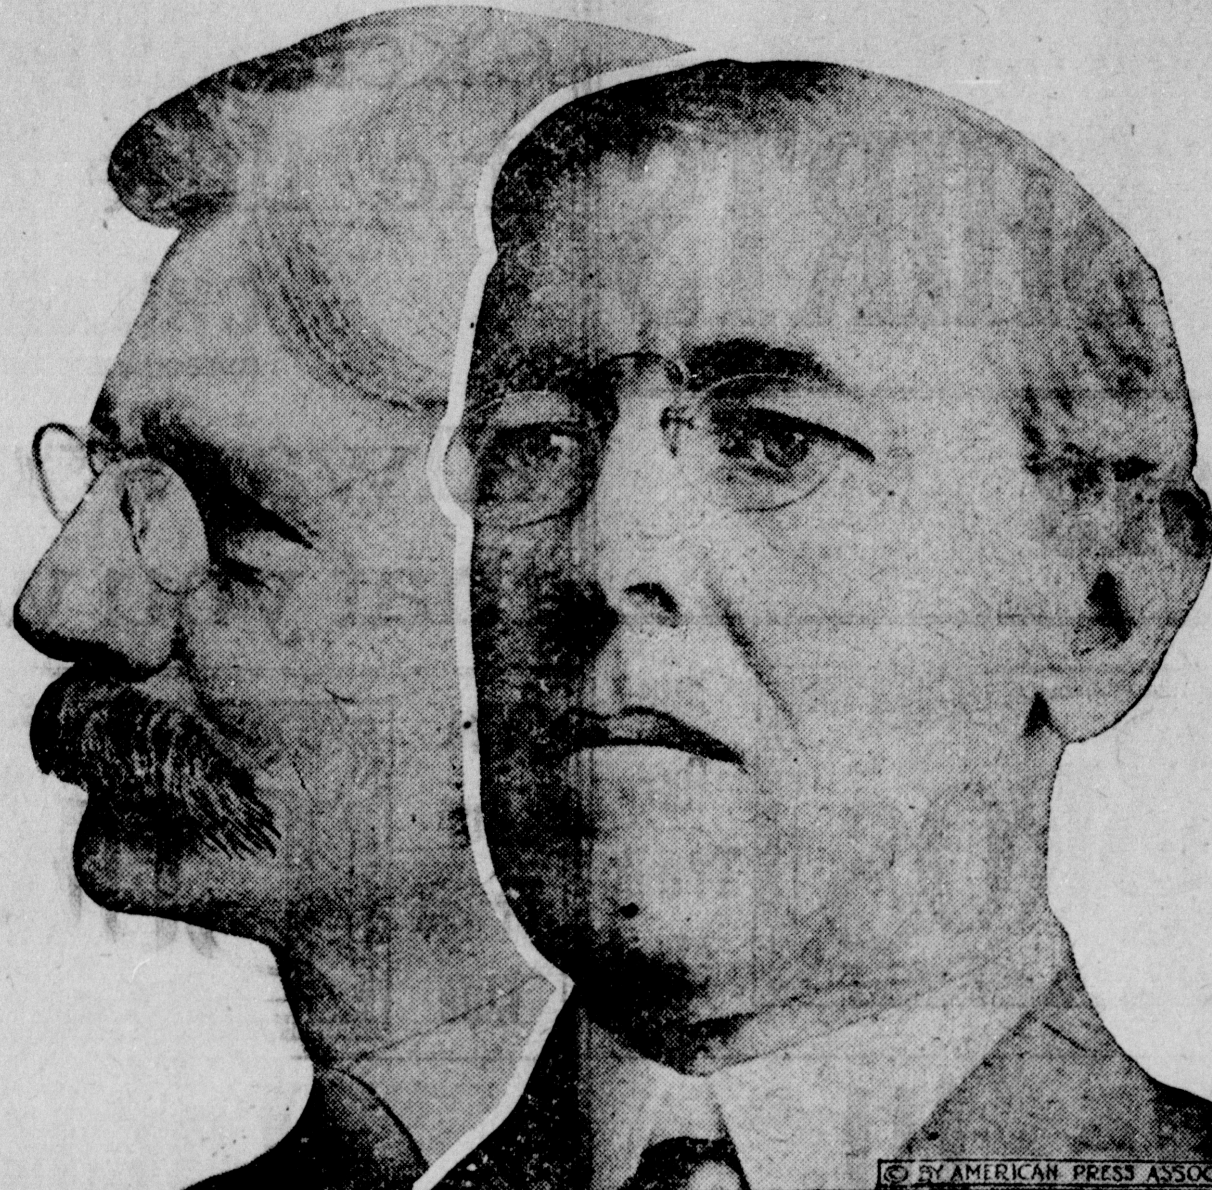

Be sure to get the genuine. Black Silk Stove Polish costs you no more than the ordinary kind. Keep your grates, registers, fenders and stove pipes bright and free from rusting by using BLACK SILK AIR-DRYING ENAMEL. Brush free with each can of enamel only.

Use BLACK SILK METAL POLISH for silverware, nickel, tinware or brass. It works quickly, easily, and leaves a brilliant surface. It has no equal for use on automobile.

LIGHT BOND ELECTION IS SET FOR APRIL FIFTEENTH

City Council Held Regular Meeting Monday—Traction Officials to Come Wednesday for Conference of Franchises.

The regular session of the city council was held Monday morning when routine business was given attention and the electric light bond election ordinance was passed. The election on the question was fixed for April 15th.

After the reading of the minutes bills approved were ordered paid when funds are available. Reports of officers were received and are summarized below.

The bond election ordinance was then read and was adopted with an emergency clause. It fixes the date of election as April 15th and names officials as stated elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. Newman was in favor of postponing the election for a time as he did not consider the present as an opportune time for voting on the matter.

Mr. Newman asked what was being done about the light and railway franchises and Mayor Davis said that Mr. Chubbuck and possibly others would be here next Wednesday to talk franchises over. Mr. Newman asked further if City Attorney Hairgrove was being consulted in the franchise matters and the mayor replied that he had notified the city attorney to be present at the conference and he supposed the attorney would bring along his franchises. He said further that he had tried at numerous times to get in communication with the attorney but that the latter was in Springfield much of the time and he could not locate him. Mr. Newman suggested that it did not seem the proper course for the city to have no attorney representing them in such matters. He said that if the city attorney was not to act in the matter that the council should secure some one as he did not feel qualified to look after the city's interest in such matters without the advice of an attorney.

Mr. Engel said that the meeting referred to as fixed for Wednesday was simply a conference as he understood it and that no action was contemplated. The council then adjourned.

Reports of Officers.

Water Superintendent Cobb reported—Water rent collected, $2,424.37; meters sold, $10; meters repaired, $18.25; total, $2,452.62. Paid for postage and express, $11.70.

The report of Dr. A. M. King, health warden showed—Deaths out of city, 4; in city 22; at Jacksonville State hospital 9; ages under 1 year, 5; 5-20 years, 8; 20-50 years, 8; 50-70 years, 8; over 70 years, 11. Cases of scarlet fever, 1; chickenpox, 1; diphtheria, 1; measles, 12. J. T. Owen, sexton of Diamond Grove cemetery reported the number of burials, 10. Howard Wannamaker, sexton of Jacksonville cemetery reported number of burials, 5.

City Clerk Pyatt reported receipts as follows—Jacksonville cemetery, $32; for Diamond Grove cemetery, $99; other sources, $5,654.55. Including vehicle licenses of $193.55.

George P. Davis, chief of police reported as follows—Number of arrests, 39; state cases, 5; city cases, 34; males, 35; females 4; amount of fines collected, $318.85. The arrests were divided as follows: Abusive language, 1; drunkenness, 10; vagrancy, 4; larceny, 2; keeping disorderly house, 1; disorderly conduct, 18; suspicion, 1; assault and battery, 2; disturbing the peace, 2.

The report of F. E. Farrell, city treasurer showed a balance March 1st of $5,891.26.

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured.

There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach. Is it not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle? "About one year ago," says P. H. Beck, of Wakelee, Mich., "I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously used any number of different medicines, but none of them were of any lasting benefit." For sale by all dealers.

CIGARMAKERS GET FREE SMOKES AGAIN.

Law For Untaxed Cigars Passes Congress.

Cigarmakers are happy in the prospect of once more enjoying "free smokes" after six months of privation since these luxuries were eliminated by a revenue ruling that every cigar manufactured in the United States must be sealed in a box under government revenue stamps. A bill has passed both the United States senate and house of representatives, however, giving cigar manufacturers and their operatives the privilege of making a few "ropes" for their own consumption free of tariff.

Before somebody in the internal revenue department dug up the knowledge that the "free smokes" were not only strictly legal it was customary for every cigar manufacturer to permit his employees to roll a certain number of cigars daily for experimental purposes and for their own enjoyment.

As labor is one of the most expensive elements in the making of a cigar, those made by the smoker himself were not costly until the internal revenue tax was imposed, but when a manufacturer had to pay the tax and then break a sealed box to give his men "smokes", he wasn't much inclined to be generous.

NOTICE

To Farmers and Stock Raisers

We are now manufacturing under State License, the best Brand of hog food on market known as "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD". It is far superior to any Brand of Hog food on the market to day. It is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906, Serial No. 47,673. Guaranteed analysis as follows:

Crude Fat 10.00 to 14 per cent
Crude Protein 52.50 to 60 per cent
Crude Fibre 1.00 to 3 per cent
Phosphate 10.00 to 12 per cent

What Is

"Sure Fatten Hog Food"

It is a dark colored granular meal, made from meat residues, and it supplies the protein and phosphates necessary for compounding a balanced ration in most economical and palatable form.

It contains phosphates in proper proportion to insure strength of bone and frame work. In the corn belt bone development is a matter of serious consideration.

It is not a substitute for corn, but a small quantity fed in connection with corn or other grains gives a balanced ration.

It is the most economical source of digestible protein known, containing twice as much protein as oil meal and five times as much as mudings, shorts, shipstuffs, or alfalfa meal.

TANKAGE recommended by all leading experiment stations.

It is packed in one-hundred-pound burlap sack, plainly marked "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD," analysis as above. It is the ideal feed to balance rations.

What "Sure Fatten Hog Food"

Tankage Does.

It develops bone and muscle in young pigs and makes them grow. It matures a hog for market in two and three months quicker than corn alone, thereby, saving one third of the feed bill, one third of the labor, one third of the risk, increasing profits one third.

It grows better proportioned hogs, more meat, a d more fat, hence market-topper hogs. SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs ship well with small shrink.

While in nowise a medicine, it so fortifies and strengthens the system against attacks of disease germs that SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs are universally healthy hogs.

ATTENDANTS AT LINCOLN COLONY HAVE HARD TASK

Institution Quarterly Says Care of Epileptics Presents Awful Problems.

The public gets very few glimpses into the inside of the state charitable institutions and knows little or nothing about them. The Institution Quarterly, which is issued by the state boards, has for one purpose the enlightenment of the public upon these subjects, even though it has to tell some very unpalatable facts. In the last issue is an account of the work that men and women attendants upon untidy wards of the Lincoln state school and colony have to do at night. The real conditions the Quarterly says, are beyond description. The report of the inspector, making his rounds in the night, reads as follows:

"During the night visit to these cottages, I was amazed beyond description to find the extent of untidiness that prevails.

"I saw it with my own eyes in all its hideousness, and I was appalled. The public can form no conception of the tremendous problem of caring for this class of boys and girls.

"It was between nine and ten when I went through the boys' cottage, and the two night watches on duty were then making their first rounds cleaning beds and boys.

"There are approximately 340 boys in the buildings, divided among seven dormitories, each dormitory having its own toilet and bath tub. "One watch has four of the wards, and the other three. I stepped into a dormitory housing thirty-five or forty epileptics. Every lad here is untidy in his habits. His bed must be changed once or twice or three times a night. The filth that the watch finds on his first round of this one ward is indescribable.

"The long corridor was, at this hour, filled with soiled sheets which are removed as rapidly as possible to the laundry.

"The average number of sheets soiled is from 250 to 275 a night. As every boy has a night shirt, forty or fifty of them are added to the laundry each night. Each soiled bed means a bath for the boy and a cleansing of the rubber sheet under his cotton sheet.

"In the girls' cottage the story is the same, but not so intense; the number of sheets sent to the laundry each night will average from 190 to 125."

TO AILING WOMEN

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Jacksonville.

No woman should consider herself healthy and well if the kidneys are weak and that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are disordered. If the kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen worse troubles may quickly follow. This is often the cause of bearing-down pains, lameness, backache, etc. Uric poisoning is also frequent cause of headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that has proven effective in thousands of such cases. Let a Jacksonville woman tell of her experience.

Mrs. Eva Martin, 902 Hackett Ave., Jacksonville, Ill., says: "I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills for several years and I know them to be a good, reliable remedy. When I have a pain in my back and my kidneys do not act regularly, I get Doan's Kidney Pills at Armstrong's Drug Store. They bring me great relief and I have no hesitation in saying so."

LETTER FROM BERLIN.

(By Associated Press.)

Berlin, March 3.—The reconciliation between Emperor William and the Duke of Cumberland, son of the deceased King of Hanover, followed by the betrothal of Princess Victoria, the emperor's only daughter to Prince Ernst August, son of the Duke, recalls a previous attempt at a reconciliation which came to nothing.

This occurred in 1903, when the emperor went to Copenhagen to attend the eighty-fifth anniversary of the birth of old King Christian, whose daughter, Princess Thyra, is the wife of the Duke of Cumberland. This royal visit had a much more important object than to improve the relations between Germany and Denmark. It was to find a wife for the German crown prince and the lady selected for the future empress of Germany was none other than Princess Alexander, daughter of the duke of Cumberland. The emperor, according to the story as told today, had corresponded with the Duchess Thyra, who obtained the consent of the duke to both the reconciliation and the betrothal.

One result of the reconciliation was to be the agreement that Prince George Wilhelm, the duke's oldest son, should become duke of Brunswick, from which position the Cumberland family was excluded by reason of the refusal of the duke of Cumberland to renounce his rights to the throne of Hanover. Even with such a prize in view, however, the duke, after reaching Copenhagen, gave way to his long-cherished hatred of Prussia, refused to meet the emperor and returned to Gmunden under plea that he had the measles. This naturally enraged the emperor. He ceased speaking of the "duke of Brunswick" referring to the head of the Cumberland house and mentioned him only by his older title "Prince of Great Britain and Ireland."

Of course this ended the project of marrying the crown prince to the Princess Alexander. A year later she married Friedrich Franz, grand duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, brother of the Princess Cecilie, who later married the crown prince.

True to his word spoken at the time of the Copenhagen episode, the emperor made no further attempt to improve relations with the Brunswick house, but when in 1908 Prince Luitpold, the old regent of Bavaria, asked for the appointment of Prince Ernst August as officer in the heavy dragons at Munich, he willingly consented.

It was even expected that a reconciliation between Hohenzollerns and Cumberlands would occur at Cehwerin in May, 1910, when the emperor suddenly announced his intention of proceeding thither to attend the christening of the infant son of the grand duke. The duke and duchess of Cumberland were already there for the festivities, but when they heard that the emperor was coming they left Schwerin before he arrived.

That the movement in Germany to preserve Wagner's "Parsifal" for Bayreuth for all time would not succeed, despite the fact that the crown prince headed the signers of the petition and that the emperor was believed to favor it, had been generally expected and predicted, but the majority against it was much greater than had been looked for. Only five members of the thirty making up the petition committee of the Reichstag voted to report favorably. The strongest arguments against a special law were that comparatively few persons would be able to enjoy the opera each year, and that it could not be protected in foreign countries. The result would be that it could be heard by opera lovers everywhere except in Germany.

The day following the committee's decision Director Martorell, of Leipzig, announced that he would stage "Parsifal" on January 4, 1914, four days after the copyright expires. Otto Lohse will direct the production and the principal roles will be sung by Max Kreuzer and Frau Rueche Endorf.

The decision of the Belgium government to build a great canal from Antwerp to Liege in order to supply that port with Belgium coal in place of the English article has been seized upon in Germany as a strong argument for building the projected canal from the lower Rhine along the Dutch frontier to the North Sea at Emden.

It is suggested in this connection that the Belgium canal be extended from Liege to the Rhine, thus making a great internal waterway from Antwerp to Emden. At a recent meeting of the budget committee of the Drusian diet the minister of public works and railways stated the government was deeply interested in the Rhine-Emden project and this remark has given the friends of it renewed hope for its realization. They argue that the new canal must be made spacious enough to accommodate vessels of 6,000 tons in order to enable it to compete successfully with the Rhine which can carry vessels of only 3,000 tons.

Of course, the chief argument for building a connection from the Rhine to the Belgium canal at Liege is that it would give much cheaper transportation for German iron and steel to the sea-board. Antwerp is the chief exporting point for German steel, but the long railway haul is a great handicap to the export business.

The famous birds of paradise are henceforth to have in their struggle for existence against the women of the world the protection of the German government. The number of these birds in German New Guinea having been greatly reduced by the plume hunters, the colonial authorities have just decided to quadruple the export duty on their skins from that colony. It is hoped that this will considerably reduce the demand for the feathers of the bird, and make it possible to prevent the species from becoming extinct.

BETTER HORSES FOR ILLINOIS.

What Central Improvement Means Financially to Illinois Farmers.

Mr. Wayne Dinsmore, secretary of the Percheron society of America, delivered a masterly address on the subject of "Better Horses for Illinois" before the 18th annual meeting of the Illinois Farmers' Institute, of which the following is a summary:

The total value of horses on farms in Illinois is $163,363,400. This valuation is greater than the combined valuation of all the cattle, swine, sheep, goats, poultry and bees on farms or not on farms, in the state of Illinois. If we take into consideration the value of these not on farms, horses exceed all other classes of live stock combined by more than $61,000,000.

There is not a single state in the union in which horses are being produced on one-half of the farms. Iowa ranks highest in this particular and Illinois sixth, and although Illinois takes high rank in the total numbers and valuation of horses, being outranked by but one state in the union, Iowa, the number of farms on which horses are being produced is extremely low.

Only Two Types in Demand. Draft horses are in strong demand at good prices. The market for carriage horses and roadsters has been virtually destroyed by the automobiles. Unclassified horses are too abundant. The supply is far in excess of the demand and prices not satisfactory. By process of elimination, therefore, we find that there are but two classes of horses on which the present and prospective demand is such as to warrant definite work toward future production; these are draft and saddle horses. For these classes the demand is strong and prices high.

To secure higher yields per acre, better farming methods are necessary. The land must be thoroughly tilled. This requires more horses on the farm, and for this reason, gradually but surely the Illinois farmers are using more draft horses. This tendency is already so well developed that grade draft mares, weighing from 1,500 to 1,600 pounds are bringing from $225 to $275 and the demand is ten times greater than the supply; therefore the present demand is apt to remain and at prices high enough to yield a satisfactory profit of the producer.

What effect will the auto truck have on the draft market? Auto trucks are here, and here to stay. They have reached a standard type found to be most efficient, at reasonable prices and are being widely used. Despite this, investigation and inquiry which has been made, indicate that they will supplement rather than displace draft horses.

Personal Work Necessary. Good horsemen should, in every possible way, encourage and assist their neighbors in producing better draft horses. This personal work on the part of the farmers who are raising good draft horses will do more to improve and better the horse stock of Illinois than all other agencies combined.

Illinois had in 1910, a total of 1,452,727 horses, valued at $112 per head. If we can, by patient work, so raise the standard of horses in the state, that they will sell for $200 per head, which is less than is now being realized for good draft mares, in the increase in the valuation of horses in the state will be $88 per head, and the financial benefit to the farmers of Illinois will be more than $127,000,000. It can be done by eliminating undesirable horses for which there is no longer a satisfactory demand. This is feasible and possible if the men who are already producing good horses will do practically missionary work in their home communities.—H. A. McKeane, secretary Illinois Farmers' Institute.

GOLD DUST does more than clean

Gold Dust sterilizes and leaves your kitchen things sanitarily safe. The ordinary soap-washed utensil is not fit to eat from, because soap does not cleanse as thoroughly as it should—does not kill germs of decay which are bound to lurk in oft-used utensils.

Gold Dust does most of the cleaning without your assistance, and does it, too, in a quicker and more thorough manner than will soap or other cleansers.

Gold Dust makes pot and pan spick and span.

AFTERMATH OF TOURNAMENT

STUDENTS CELEBRATE BASKETBALL VICTORY.

Speech Making Takes Place at the J. H. S. Auditorium and Various Schools of the City Visited—Some Records of Visiting Teams in Meet.

One of the biggest celebrations ever held at the high school took place Monday, as the result of winning the interscholastic basketball tournament. Noise, speeches, parades and a holiday were features of the program.

Shortly before 9 o'clock over 100 J. H. S. boys went down to the mayor's office and stayed there until he came. He was loudly applauded and the students demanded a speech. The mayor expressed his appreciation of the work the team had done and of the success of the meet. After he had promised them a holiday, the students adjourned to the high school where a drum corps was formed consisting of Warfield Brown, Richard Reynolds, William Alcott, Glenn Williamson, LePout Andrews, Abner Jackson, with Orrel Rutledge as drum major.

After all had assembled in the auditorium speeches were made by Coach Buland and the members of the team—Dale Boxell, Walton Boxell, Tom Hale, Warren Maddox and James Kolp. When Capt. Hale arose to speak a traveling bag was brought in, containing the trophy cup which the team had won and presented to Hale. He in turn thanked the association for the cup and then presented the trophy to the school. The cup will be put in a conspicuous place and will have engraved upon it the names of the players.

Following the presentation a speech was made by Manager Alcott, who thanked everyone for helping to make the meet a success and addresses were also heard from Principal Gore, Miss Anna Brown, Prof. Paul Morrison.

A parade was next formed, in which all the students took part, led by the drum corps. The line of march led them to the Woman's college, where a number of yells were given and Dr. J. R. Harker appeared and gave the students a splendid address, saying that in a great measure he could appreciate their spirit of rejoicing because his school had recently held a celebration as the result of raising the big endowment fund.

The students formed a line of march and after circling the square they went to Illinois college where high schools yells were given and songs sung.

LETTER FROM PARIS.

By Associated Press.)

Paris, March 3.—Shall a tax be placed upon the employment of foreigners in France? This is the important question submitted to Parliament by Frenchmen who see a grave menace in the rapidly increasing foreign labor. Statistics show that foreigners are encroaching upon agricultural France on all her frontiers. The Belgians come from the north, the Germans from the east, the Italians cross the Alps and the Spaniards the Pyrenees to find easier conditions in the riches of this country. In the departments on all these frontiers the foreign born form an average of 19 per cent of the inhabitants.

Americans as well as all other foreigners doing business in France may be the object of legislation, the purpose of which is to relieve Frenchmen from the kind of competition at home. M. M. Lerolle, Galois and other members of the Chamber of Deputies have proposed a law forbidding any company or firm which has one or several foreign managers or directors from employing more than 10 per cent of its staff from foreigners. Should this bill be passed it would affect some fifty American companies organized under French law as French companies, but really owned by American companies doing business in France, such as the oil, agricultural, machine and insurance companies.

Americans interested in the labor problem in the United States have gathered here some interesting data about Russia in connection with their study of the general European situation. It appears that Russian workmen are falling back into the condition of political and industrial discontent characteristic of the revolutionary years of 1905, 1906 and 1907. Official figures of the Board of Factory Inspection show there were 1,918 factory strikes in Russia last year, involving 683,000 workmen and causing a loss of over 2,200,000 working days, as against 464 strikes affecting 105,000 workmen in 1911 and 222 strikes affecting only 47,000 workmen in 1910. To find a year to compare with 1912 for industrial demoralization it is necessary to return to the strike statistics of 1907, the last of the revolutionary years when 740,000 men were out during the year.

About two-thirds of the strikes last year were declared for purely political purposes, according to the official report. They show the increasingly successful activity of political agitators of the social democratic and social revolutionary schools. These concentrate their efforts largely on the workmen in the large centers like St. Petersburg, Moscow and Warsaw. The bases of these political strikes were the shooting down of workmen in the Lena gold fields, Siberia, for which a general strike of Russian workmen was ordered as a protest; May day demonstrations of the solidarity of labor; protests against elections to the Fourth Duma under the law of 1906, which the radical parties refuse to regard as legal; protests against the introduction of the workmen's sickness and casualty law adopted last year, and a demonstration against the infliction of the death penalty on mutinous sailors of the Black Sea fleet.

Americans who know Paris well quickly join the chorus of Parisians that mud-spitting automobiles and automobiles constitute one of the greatest nuisances of Paris life. Beautiful gowns have been ruined and many a new morning coat wrecked by flying mud which, being mixed with motor oil, is of the kind that never comes off. The evil may now cease, at least in part.

As a consequence of the recent instructions of the government to the police to prosecute the owners of vehicles hesitating store windows and passersby, omnibuses and automobile companies and public-spirited persons arranged competitions for inventors of mud guards at Versailles. A track with a muddy surface was arranged and boardings were placed at intervals along the course, these being covered with sheets of white canvas, about 4 feet high and 9 feet long, subdivided into small squares. The mud splashes could rapidly be detected on the white squares and their number and comparative sizes noted. Every completing vehicle had the mud guard under test fitted to each wheel and was driven along the track at speeds varying from 15 to 25 miles an hour. Finally three types were selected, although none of the ideas presented entirely prevented mud from being thrown on the canvas screens.

THE JOY OF OWNING A FARM

Banks May Fail, Cities Burn, Stock Exchanges Go Mad With Panic, Your Acres Will Remain Serene and Unruffled.

Well, in the first place there is the joy of ownership. The farm is ours. Meadow, orchard, woodlot and brook are ours. Banks may fail, cities burn, stock exchanges go mad with panic, our acres will remain serene and unruffled, and our apples and hay will grow just the same. As we walk across stubble field or brown plowed land, we tread upon our own—ours deep down to the center of the earth and up to the blue sky. This is our magnificent aim; these are our stone walls. The wonderful forces of life that are evident on every hand are working for us, and within these eighty acres, for us alone. They never strike, they never ask for more wages, they respond marvelously to the slightest attention. We are king and queen of a happy domain, where the only wars are with coddling moth and potato bug. In other walks of life you may scorn my poor abilities, you may spurn my efforts, you may insult my low estate; on my farm you must seek an audience with the monarch of the realm; on my own land I am beyond the reach of intrigue and bickering and poking for place; I am established.

Then we are engaged in a work of salvation. Thus far it has not extended to the poor inhabitants of the hills back of us; the souls we are just now fighting for are the souls of trees—the old derelicts of a mis-spent orchard life. They cried for food, and we gave them nitrogen, phosphoric acids and potash in the form in which they were best able to assimilate them. They were choked with the growth of years of neglect, and with saw and pruning shears we let the sunlight in. Decay had cut on into their hearts and with chisel and cement we healed them. A thousand plant and insect enemies attacked their weakened defense; we fought their battle with a spray pump.

I do not counsel anyone to follow in my steps; they are faltering at best. But I know that which I have learned—that happiness and contentment are not built upon such things as may take unto themselves wings and fly to the uttermost parts of the earth. For you salvation may come through the revolution of society; for me it lies in the owning of a bit of brown earth and the planting of a tree together with such service as I may be able to render my fellowmen from that vantage ground.

If still you do not comprehend, go with us some clear September morning and stand upon our hill overlooking meadow and orchard, wood lot and pasture. Here are our vigorous young white pines, drawing life and beauty from yellow sand. There is our low, nestling farmhouse and our friendly barn, with the lofty elms and shady maples, and the four stalwart hickories beyond. Where the elders and willow shrubs wander down toward the ravine is our music making brook, where our strong Bob is being watered. The ripening apples hang thick from the propped and groaning boughs.

The hour of fruitage is at hand; the spirit of fulfillment and accomplishment broods over the farm; the seed has brought forth fruit after his kind; a great, God given year is being rounded out to completeness. And far over yonder, beyond the town with its homes and its college towed, lie the mountains in their blue serenity, symbols of the everlasting power that brings the seasons.

It looks like the Old Wet and Dry Fight Will Be On Again This Year at Bluffs.

People generally had hoped the old wet and dry proposition in Bluffs was down for good, says the Bluffs Times. This year the old ghost has been revived and the people may just as well get into the game for a straight out fight: saloons or no saloons, and the thing to do is to wait it harder than ever. Two tickets have been filed for the primary. The dry ticket is as follows:

For president—G. W. Reese. For trustees: Henry Knoepfel, Arthur Pye and Daniel Harvey. For treasurer: Victor Knoepfel.

The saloon ticket is as follows: For president: Henry Rolf. For trustees: Wm. Seeman, Jack Mains and George Matthews. For treasurer: W. J. Doyle.

The Forty Years Test.

An article must have exceptional merit to survive for a period of forty years. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was first offered to the public in 1872. From a small beginning it has grown in favor and popularity until it has attained a world wide reputation. You will find nothing better for a cough or cold. Try it and you will understand why it is a favorite after a period of more than forty years. It not only gives relief—it cures. For sale by all dealers.

Fine Remedy for A Backward Child

Continue it For Only a Brief Period and the Good Results Will Surprise You.

A low state of the general health is now the accepted cause of backwardness in children. So in the case of a backward child it is best to look towards building up its health. It will usually be found that the main trouble is in the food, in lack of assimilation and digestion. Hence care should be taken in the kind of food given to the child. This, with plenty of air and exercise, should bring about a change for the better.

Watch the conditions of the bowels, to note whether the waste is being passed off or not, or being passed too freely. If either condition prevails give a small dose of that gentlest of all laxative-tonics, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Thousands of mothers will testify to the wonders it has wrought in the lives of their children, and for that reason legions of families like those of Mrs. J. E. Bruntz, 1903 9th Ave., Nashville, Tenn., are never without it in the house. Mrs. Bruntz writes: "Harry had always been constipated until I gave him Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I am certainly going to keep this medicine in the house in future for I know it to be good." It is pleasant to the taste and so perfectly safe that it is given to infants, and yet is equally effective for grown people. All druggists sell it and the price is only fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

HARRY BRUNTZ.

the latter for families who need it regularly.

Syrup Pepsin has no equal as a cure for constipation, indigestion, biliousness, headaches, sour stomach, gas on the stomach, liver trouble and kindred complaints. It has so many advantages that those who once use it forever after discard cathartics, salts, pills and other coarse remedies, for they are seldom advisable and should never be given to children.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

A STRONG REFERENCE.
A young man recently applied for a position with a large printing house, and not having a letter of reference, offered his bank book. It showed a regularity of entries of deposit. It was a very strong recommendation, indicating character and persistence, which finally secured for him a good position.

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

STOCKS MAKE STRONG ADVANCE

PRICES DO NOT ADVANCE QUICKLY BUT BY SLOWER MORE GRADUAL GAIN.

Creeping Advance Continued During Day Until Many of the Leading Stocks Had Gained Two or Three Points.

(By Associated Press)
New York, March 3.—Operations on the long side of the stock market were conducted confidently today.
For the present at least there is a reaction from the extreme pessimism of the last few weeks.

The supply of stocks was limited even at a higher range of prices, and bear traders were unable to discover a weak spot of any importance in the list. No attempt was made to force up prices with a rush but the slow, creeping advance went on virtually without interruption until many of the leading stocks had gained two or three points. The coppers, coals, Pacifics and steel were in especial demand. There was some profit-taking toward the close,
which scaled down prices.

It was assumed that national politics would hold first place this week in the talk of the street. Political considerations have placed such a large part in the decline of the last few weeks that traders were inclined to await definite indications of the attitude of the new administration before entering upon extended new commitments.

An important factor in the day's advance was London buying. Amalgamated was in especially good demand from abroad and there was considerable buying of steel, Canadian Pacific and Erie.

The advance in the copper stocks was subsequent to the rise of the metal markets. London reported a considerably higher range of prices and in the domestic market there was a stronger tone.

The world-wide demand for money and the poor showing of the banks last week were reflected in the strong tone of the money market.

SCOTT'S THEATRE.

Thursday, Mar. 6th

A Great Special.

The Mexican Spy

A story of the great southwest replete with incidents of to day on the Mexican border. All depicted with realism so vivid that the audience can scarcely keep from rising in their seats.

Dr. C. W. Carson

The Regular and Reliable Chicago Specialist will be at the

Dunlap House

Wednesday, Mar. 5.

One day only and Returns every 28 Days.

Office hours: 8 a. m. to 4 p. m.

The most reliable and successful specialist in diseases of MEN AND WOMEN has visited Jacksonville since 1890, cures the cases he undertakes and receives a fee from the insurance. This is why he continues his visits year after year, while other specialists have made a few visits and ceased to return. His hospital, experience and extensive practice have made him so proficient that he can name and locate a disease in a few minutes.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Are you nervous and despondent; weak and debilitated; tired mornings; no ambition; lifeless; memory poor; easily fatigued; excited and irritable; eyes sunken, red and blurred; pimples on face; dreams and night terrors; restless, haggard looking; weak back; deposit in urine and drains at stool; distrustful; want of confidence; lack of energy and strength? The Carson System will cure you.

Dr. Carson through years of experience has perfected the most infallible method of curing all diseases and weaknesses of men, youthful follies and all effects of abuses and excesses, impure life and solitary habits which ruin body, mind and body unfitness for business, study, society or marriage. A perfect restoration guaranteed under written contract. Writing backed by abundant capital to hold for my promise. It costs no more to employ an expert than to risk your life with an inexperienced physician.

I ALSO CURE ALL CURABLE CASES OF Catarrh, Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat, Lungs, Liver, Kidney, Heart, Stomach, Bowels, Bladder and Skin Diseases by a treatment that has never failed in thousands of cases that have been pronounced beyond hope.

WRITE to call, though personal consultation much preferred. Every case of Piles, Fistula, Hemorrhoids and Venereal diseases cured without detention from business. Sexual weakness, Syphilis, Gonorrhea, and Stricture a specialty.

REMEMBER DATE OF VISIT.

Come early as parlors are always crowded. A friendly call may save you future suffering; it has made life anew to thousands who had been pronounced beyond hope. No cases treated by cut residence and no O. D. scheme.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE ADVOCATES HELD MEETING AT LIBRARY

Increase in Membership of Local Association is Recorded—Delegates Chosen to Mississippi Valley Conference.

The Equal Suffrage association of Jacksonville held their first regular monthly meeting in the auditorium of the library Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The attendance was good, a large increase in membership having been recorded since the organization of the association on permanent footing a short time ago. Ladies desiring to become charter members may still do so as an extension of time has been made until the next meeting, the first week in April.

Miss Mary Johnston was elected secretary, Miss Anne W. Jackson who was elected at the last meeting being unable to serve. A motion was made empowering the president to appoint committees to look after matters pertaining to program and membership. Delegates were elected to attend the Mississippi Valley Suffrage conference to be held in St. Louis, April 2, 3 and 4. The delegates are Mrs. Thomas Worthington, Mrs. A. L. Adams, Mrs. F. E. Baldwin, Dr. Grace Dewey and Dr. Josephine Milligan.

Dr. Grace Dewey, the president, read a communication from Elizabeth K. Booth, the chairman of the legislative committee of the state association, containing suggestions for presenting the suffrage cause before the present session of the legislature. The letter called attention to the fact that much can be done without a constitutional amendment, the legislature having power to enfranchise women in elections for town, village and city officers, except police magistrate, supervisors, superintendents of sanitary districts, members of boards of review and the state board of equalization. Arrangements were made for sending individual letters on proposed suffrage legislation to the members of the assembly.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS—BE BETTER LOOKING—TRY OLIVE TABLETS

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

These Olive Tablets oil the bowels—yet have no oily taste. They are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil.

If you want a clear pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause. Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 25c per box.

Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

When Burton Holmes recently gave his celebrated travelogue on "Panama" at Orchestra hall, Chicago, he was seriously interrupted by continual coughing of the audience. No one annoys willingly and if people with coughs, colds, hoarseness and tickling in throat would use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, they could quickly cure their coughs and colds and avoid this annoyance. MISSIONARY SOCIETY ENTERTAINED

The Young Ladies Foreign Missionary society of Grace church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Capps on North Church street Monday afternoon. Mrs. Capps was assisted in the entertaining of her guests by Miss Edna Stout. There was an attendance of about thirty-five ladies present. A committee to arrange for the thank offering service for next Sunday morning was appointed and is Mrs. David Schaffnit, Mrs. E. D. Herald, Miss Lillian McCullough and Mrs. William Cocking. The regular routine of business was followed by a literary program as follows:

Devotion—Mrs. Graham. Reading—Miss Alice Marsh. Piano Solo—Miss Lula Hay.

History and objects of thank offering—Mrs. J. W. Miller.

Refreshments were served and a social hour very profitably and happily spent.

NOT A TWINGE OF RHEUMATISM SINCE TAKING RHEUMA

"I suffered from Rheumatism for six years; tried different doctors, with no relief. I saw your advertisement and decided to try RHEUMA. I have taken three bottles and am entirely free from the disease. I was so bad I could not sleep nights; now I sleep well, and my knees work perfectly."—P. W. Miller, Catawissa, Pa.

"For 14 months, I was so badly afflicted with Rheumatism that much of the time I was obligated to use a cane. I used one bottle of RHEUMA and THE CANE IS IN THE CORNER NOW. No one could be happier to be rid of the pain, swollen knees and badly swollen ankles. I certainly believe there is no remedy for the disease like RHEUMA."—Mrs. Daniel S. Knox, Severance N. Y., Aug. 8 1912.

Conover & Shreve guarantees RHEUMA to cure Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Arthritis, Chronic, Neuralgia and Kidney disease or money back—and only 50 cents a bottle.

DO YOUR VERY BEST.

And Then Be Sure That You Are Satisfied With Yourself.

It is not what people say about you—it's what you are that counts. The one person in all this world whom you should aim to satisfy is yourself. You alone know yourself. Other people know your outward appearance, your actions, your deeds. You, and you alone, know your motives, your ambitions, your thoughts.

Are you satisfied with yourself? It is your own fault if you are not. Are you satisfied that you are doing the best you can in your work, that you are making the most of your time? Are you confident that your conduct toward your family, your friends, your neighbors, your employer, cannot be improved?

Look yourself straight in the face this morning in your mind's looking glass. Ask yourself whether it is what people say about you or what you are that hurts. Analyze your own conduct in all matters.

Put yourself in the other fellow's place and try to see your actions through his eyes. Imagine that you are your employer instead of yourself. Answer honestly whether if he knew as much about you as you know about yourself he would discharge you or would raise your wages. If you do this conscientiously there are many things you will do differently.

Remember this, too—other people's opinion of you is based on your own opinion of yourself. Are you self respecting? Other people will respect you. Are you truthful? The world will believe you. Are you honest? Every one will trust you.

But weigh yourself frequently. Weigh yourself carefully. Be certain that your own opinion of yourself is justified. Be satisfied with yourself—William Johnston in American Magazine.

CRABBE, THE NEGLECTED.

A Poet Whom Byron Called Nature's Best and Sternest Painter.

Dante was a great traveler and the greatest pen impressionist who ever wrote. He describes a landscape in a line so that it stays with you forever. He uses the fewest possible number of words, hardly any adjectives, and the picture leaps up before you, immortal and unforgettable. Who can do this among the moderns? Keats could. Tennyson gives you English landscape. If you read "In Memoriam" you have lived a year in the English country and seen the march of the English seasons. Crabbe can do it. Who reads Crabbe? Nobody. And yet he is a wonderful poet, as realistic as Tolstoy and Arnold Bennett. Byron called him the best painter of nature—"Nature's sternest painter, yet her best."

He writes about the poor as they are, without sentimentality and without exaggeration, and as a painter of English landscape he still remains the best. He may not be read by the modern generation, but he is not forgotten. A Frenchman wrote a long and excellent book about him not long ago. He is safe in the temple of fame, which place you have entered and can't leave. And this temple is like a wheel. It goes round and round, and some of its inmates are in the glare of the sun, and sometimes they are in the shade, but they are there, and they never fall out.—Maurice Barling in Metropolitan.

Writing For Posterity.

A prominent French critic, the story runs, once said to George Bernard Shaw:

"You are putting on a new comedy Monday night. Let me attend one of the dress rehearsals, won't you?" "Impossible," said Mr. Shaw. "My dress rehearsals are always private. I have to refuse even the most distinguished critics access to them."

"But," said the other, "I want to write a critical criticism. If I have to write and telegraph it in a few minutes on Monday night it will be very hurriedly done, and I fear it will give a wrong impression of your comedy to Paris the next day."

"Have no anxiety on that score," Mr. Shaw replied. "My comedies are not written for the next day."—Exchange.

Restoring Rubber.

People using articles made of rubber that frequently lose their elasticity through oxidation may restore the material to its original condition by a simple process. Soak the part in a mixture of one part of ammonia to two parts water. This is said to be particularly well adapted to the restoring of rubber bands, rings and small tubing which are ready to be come dry and brittle.

Just Like an Immigrant.

"Charley is so poetical! When I accepted him he said he felt like an immigrant entering a new world." "Well, he was an immigrant." "What do you mean?" "Wasn't he just landed?"—Atlanta Constitution.

What's In a Name.

"But now that these sisters are married, a social gulf separates them hopelessly." "Indeed?" "Yes. One of them married a mechanic and the other a mechanician."—Puck.

Cattish.

"Do you think Oscar proposed to me merely on account of my money?" "Well, my dear, you know he must have had some reason."—Filegunde Blatter.

There is nothing so powerful as truth and often nothing so strange—Webster.

LOOKED FOR OLD LANDMARK.

D. J. Field, of Richards county, Mo., was in the city Monday—his first visit in 27 years. While here he was trying to look up the old location of "Princes Sanitarium," where old Dr. Prince re-amputated his left leg which five years before that date had been cut off but the wound never healed and Dr. Prince performed the operation over, since which date, twenty-seven years ago he has been hale and hearty. Mr. Field was on his way to Shelbyville, Ill., where he will visit relatives.

JOHN FARMER HAD SALE.

A public sale was held Monday at the farm residence of John Farmer three miles east of Sinclair and the prices received were of a satisfactory nature. J. G. Heifers $40 and yearling steers $43.50 a head. 3,500 bushels of corn went to James Mahon and Thomas Fox at 39 1-2 a bushel. Hay went for 50c a bale and oat straw at 30c a bale. Implements sold at good prices.

Madam—Whether you need flour today or not, you'll do well to trade with the dealer who sells Zephyr Flour

IN the retail trade, when a dealer gets the agency for Zephyr Flour, it is considered positive evidence that he stands high in his community as a man and high in the trade as a square merchant. It means, too, that the flour in his store are of highest quality.

Zephyr Flour

We have spent endless care, time and money perfecting Zephyr Flour, the famous hard wheat flour of Kansas. We wash it and wash it and grind it and grind it, watching it all the while. Cooks who use it get a reputation for their bread and cakes, their biscuit and pies.

It is so good, so sure, that we sell it with a positive guarantee to satisfy. Any Zephyr Flour dealer will, on request, return the money paid for any sack of Zephyr Flour that fails to please. Save the chemist's test certificate of the wheat and flour, found in each sack of Zephyr Flour. It assures uniform high quality or another sack from your dealer or from us.

CUPID AT THE VARSITY

Pleasing Play Given by Phi Nu Society at the Woman's College.

A large audience was present Monday evening in Music hall at the Woman's college to witness the well known play by Eunice T. Gray, entitled "Cupid at the Varsity," given by members of the Phi Nu Literary society. The play abounds in a large number of humorous situations and perplexities, which kept the audience in good spirits during the entire evening. The young ladies have been under the direction of Miss Amanda Kidder, dean of the school of expression, and the various characters were well taken and complimentary mention could be made of each one. The stage settings were splendidly done and the talent display by members of the society is certainly commendable.

The play was in four acts as follows:

Act I—Robert Selby's Room.
Act II—Same as Act I.
Act III—Interior of Boat House.
Act IV—Conservatory, two years later.

The following was the cast of characters:
Ruth Moore—Frances Frazee.
Mrs. Moore—Vera Tomlin.
Miss Serena Selby—Frances Freeman.

Genevieve Allen—Freda Sidell.
Ethel Lynn—Marjory Grandy.
Daisy Doane—Elizabeth Metcalf.
Robert Selby—Celia Cathcart.
Monica Kent—Helen Moore.
Howard Dixon—Ferdinand Hess.
Dick Elsworth—Ruth Irie.
Chester Allen—Ara Large.

FLORETH'S

Our Enlarged Millinery and Ready-to-wear Department is Now Double Its Former Size.

Our increasing millinery and ready-to-wear trade has reached such dimensions that we were compelled to have more room. To do this we have entirely remodelled our second floor, taken down partitions, pulled out shelves, added new fixtures, etc., so that now we have our entire second floor space devoted entirely to millinery and ready-to-wear, which is second to none in Jacksonville.

New Lines Added

We now show a very complete line of children's Wash Dresses, ranging in sizes 2, 3, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years at 50c, 65c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50. These garments are of highest standard in make and material and cost about half if made at home. See our front window display for an idea.

$1.00 Women's House Dresses

These dresses are made of Percale in light and dark colors. Seersucker stripe gingham, some high neck with long sleeve, others with low neck in three quarter sleeve, full run of sizes 34 to 44. These dresses are regularly worth $1.25, but we offer them to you for $1.00.

MILLINERY We open our spring Millinery with more than 500 new spring hats. Unusual values will be our great effort in this department this season. EDWARD G. SAYE RESIGNS NEWSPAPER POSITION

Will Represent a Well Known Insurance Company in the Local Field.

Edward G. Saye, who six years ago came from Henderson, Ky., and entered upon duties for the Courier has resigned his position and will devote his attention to the life insurance business. Mr. Saye has handled local news for the Courier in a way which has been characterized by energy, a painstaking care and a strict regard for the facts. He has the news instinct and knows well how to write a story after he gets it. Mr. Saye's services on the Courier have been highly valued and in leaving that paper he takes with him the good wishes of the management.

The wide acquaintanceship Mr. Saye has in both Jacksonville and Morgan county and the esteem in which he is held will be factors in contributing to his success in his new work. He has not as yet made known the company he will represent but it is understood to be one of the strongest and best known of the old-line concerns. His many friends will be glad to know that he is still to make Jacksonville his home.

Fred Christmann of Springfield spent Sunday at the home of his uncle, J. V. Petry on South East St.

HELD ANNUAL MEETING.

Business Session of Joy Prairie Farmers' Elevator Co.

The stockholders of the Joy Prairie Farmers' Elevator company held their annual business meeting Monday at the elevator. Reports were heard from the various officials and everything appeared in good shape. This elevator only started last August but during that time the company has made some money and have on hand a goodly quantity of corn, oats and wheat. C. L. Reid and Harry Ogle, who had been elected on the board of directors for one year, were re-elected. A. E. Williamson resigned as secretary and his place was filled by Fletcher Blackburn.

The following were the officers elected:

President—John Moss.
Vice-president—John Hadden.
Treasurer—E. E. Crabtree.
The following are the directors: John Moss, John Hadden, A. E. Williamson, C. L. Reid, E. E. Ogle and Fletcher Blackburn.

FAILURE TO GET UNANIMOUS VOTE HALTS PASSAVANT CAMPAIGN

Four Trustees Opposed to Bringing Wilbur A. Bowen Here to Raise $60,000 For Hospital.

Because a unanimous vote could not be secured by the trustees of Passavant hospital relative to bringing Wilbur A. Bowen here to conduct a campaign to raise $60,000 for Passavant hospital, last night, the project which has been under consideration for eighteen months was given up.

Not only the trustees, but also the pastors of the city and members of the hospital staff, were invited to be present at the session. Last November the executive committee appointed Mr. Nichols to go to Aurora to consult with Wilbur A. Bowen, a specialist in raising funds for hospitals. For over a year and a half the executive committee has been trying to get this man, but his time has been so taken up that nothing definite could ever be accomplished. Mr. Bowen stated upon the visit of Mr. Nichols, that he would make some sort of a proposition in February. After writing the letter Mr. Bowen learned that Mr. Nichols had started on his trip around the world, so he wrote to the executive committee stating on what terms he would come, but that he would have to have an answer by today (March 4). He proposed to hold a campaign of seven weeks next September to secure $60,000.

The question was thoroughly discussed last night in a two hours session and when the first ballot was taken there were six who voted against Mr. Bowen's coming and 12 in favor of his coming. The matter was then made clear that unless Mr. Bowen could receive a unanimous vote it would not be advisable to ask him to come. A second ballot was taken and the result was that four voted against his coming and 12 in favor.

The trustees who have been working for Mr. Bowen's coming felt that, from the unusual success that had crowned his efforts in some half hundred cities of the United States, that his visit to Jacksonville would be the occasion of a great campaign for Passavant.

MORTUARY

Miller.
The funeral services of Bessie Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Miller, were conducted Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the Murrayville Methodist church, in charge of the pastor, Rev. J. A. Biddle. Music was furnished by the church choir and the flowers were in charge of six little girls, Zula Wild, Dorothy Blakeman, Opal Whitlock, Margaret Spencer and Eva Ramsey.

Interment was made in Henry cemetery and the bearers were Warren Wright, Elmer Sooy, Harry Rimbley, Bluford Kitcher, Ira Kitcher and Ira Fanning.

Dowell.
Allie B. Dowell, died Saturday evening at 9:30 p. m., at the Jacksonville State hospital. He was 32 years of age. The remains were taken to Williamson and Cody's undertaking parlors and were sent Sunday to his former home in Petersburg for burial.

Masters.
Robert Lytton Masters died Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Nellie Wiswell, 302 South Mauvaisterre street, after an illness with paralysis.

The deceased was a son of David and Elizabeth Masters and was born at Concord, April 8, 1853. He was a carpenter by trade and is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Jennie Park of Newton, Kan., Edgar Masters of Arnold, Ernest Masters of Hastings, Neb., and Mrs. Nellie Wiswell of this city.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the late residence in charge of Rev. G. W. Flagg and the remains will be taken to Concord at 11:22 o'clock via the Burlington. Interment will be made in the Concord cemetery.

EXTENSIVE FRAUDS ALEGED.

New Orleans, La., March 3.—The hearing of testimony of the alleged victims of Notary James J. Woulfe, who is accused of having swindled small property owners out of more than $300,000, was begun today. Through the cumbersome French system of recording mortgages, Woulfe and other notaries, according to alleged facts brought to light by an official investigation now under way, are believed to have perpetrated frauds netting them upwards of $1,500,000. The disclosures are likely to bring about radical reforms in the notarial system, which is a relic of the days of the French.

ANNUAL OPEN MEETING.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES WILL NOT SPEAK AT COMMENCEMENT

Board of Education Decides Matter at Regular Meeting Monday Night.

At a brief and peaceful session
Monday night members of the Board of Education concurred in the wishes of the members of the senior class of the High School, to have a speaker from out of the city give the address at commencement instead of having members of the class on the program. Before the meeting members met a committee from labor unions and held a conference in the mayor's office. The members also had an architect's drawing of the proposed eighth grade building which was viewed with a great deal of interest.

The meeting was called to order with all members present and President Davis in the chair. Minutes of the last regular meeting and of the special meeting of February 14th were read and approved and all properly approved claims were ordered paid. Reports of officers were read and placed on file. Mr. Furr's report showed the per cent of attendance at the various schools as follows: high school 96, eighth grade 97, Jefferson 93, Lafayette 93, Franklin 96, Morton 96, and Washington 94. Treasurer Farrell's report showed a balance of $282.54 on hand February 1, in the general fund, receipts during the month $210, expenditures $2.55 and balance on hand March 1, $489.99. The building and repair fund showed a balance of $36,812.23 and a balance March 1, of $36,657.48.

Mr. Furr stated that he had been asked by the class officer of the senior class of the high school to present the matter of changing the rule at the commencement exercises. He said that a majority of the members of the class had voted to have an out of town speaker at the commencement exercises instead of having members of the class on the program and on motion of Member Clampitt the board decided to change the custom.

The superintendent also brought up the matter of the teacher attending the sessions of the Central Illinois Teacher's Association, which are to be held in Springfield March 28 and 29. He said that while it had not been the custom to close school for these meetings, any teacher who wished to attend was given the privilege to do so. He also said that some supplementary readers were needed in the third and fourth grades and also some copies of English literature and he figured the total cost of the books would be about $30. He was instructed to purchase the necessary books. Upon motion of Member Badger, Member Rogerson and Prof. Gore were instructed to make arrangements for the Opera House for the commencement exercises, after which the board adjourned.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The ninth birthday anniversary of Morell Simms was duly observed Saturday afternoon when his aunt, Mrs.
Otis Hoffman, entertained in honor of the occasion eighteen of his little friends at her home on North Prairie street. In keeping with the Easter season the tables were decorated with toy ducks, rabbits and little chickens and in the center of the table was a miniature pond upon which were toy ducks swimming. At the place of honor on the table was a birthday cake which was lighted up with nine candles, and the place cards bore designs of chickens and rabbits and on the corner of each was a picture of a little fluffy chicken. The favors were oval shaped boxes containing small candy eggs.
The young man was the recipient of quite a number of gifts from his guests and the event will long be remembered with pleasure by each one present. Music suitable to the occasion was furnished by Miss Irene Simms. Mrs. Hoffman was assisted in caring for the little folks by Mrs.
Charles Simms and Mrs. C. G. Simms.
Those present were Morell Simms, Dorothy Cully, Helen Richardson,
Clara Smith, Delia Vaughan, Malva
Moss, Margaret Struck, Violet
Gerard, Flossie Jolly, Elizabeth Jolly, Henry Struck, Malcolm Miller,
George Oberstar, Reginald Reid, Robert Reid, Carlton Hoover and Joseph and Richard Towers. It was a happy occasion and was enjoyed by all who were present, both young and old.

Friends of Mrs. R. E. Phillips of the Salem neighborhood gave her a genuine and pleasant surprise Sunday in honor of her 47th birthday.
At noon, according to a pre-arranged plan, they gathered at the Phillips home, bringing with them a great variety of good things to eat. The dinner served was an excellent one and included chicken, cakes, pies, oysters, ice cream and a great many more good things. Several hours were spent enjoyably in a social way and with music and the guests were one in wishing Mrs. Phillips many happy returns of the day. The company included besides Mr. and Mrs.
Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cully,
Mr. and Mrs. George Killam, Mr.
and Mrs. W. C. Thompson, sons
Russell and Harry, Mr. and Mrs. E.
B. Sturgeon and daughters Vivian and Mabel Esther, Mrs. J. H. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Maddox.

FIRE AT MUNCIE.

Danville, Ill., March 3.—A fire at Muncie this county tonight burned buildings occupied by the Bank of Muncie, a livery barn and a restaurant and threatened other buildings before being controlled.
Its origin is unknown.

BANDITS AT WORK.

Nogales, Ariz., March 3.—The El Tijo mining company's camp, 18 miles east of Pozo, was looted Saturday by bandits according to a report received here to day from camp manager, G. E. Powell.

When Swinburne Was Dead.
A diverting picture of Swinburne from a book long with many other waiting to be asked to read about a latest poem, is given in Frank Cass's "Portraits and Poets".
After looking about the room and greeting his host and hostess with many little looks of the head and affectionate smiles and light winks of the fingers, he would settle at last upright on a chair, or by preference on a sofa, and sit there in a state of rigid immobility, the toes of one foot pressed against the heel of the other. Then he would say in an airy, detached way, although speaking of some absent person, "I have brought with me my 'The Inassus' or my 'Wasted Garden' (or whatever it might happen to be, which I have just finished." Then he would be folded again in silence, looking at nothing. We then were to say, "Oh do please read it to us." Will you?

W. S. Skelton, a merchant at Stanley, Ind., says he would not take $100.00 for the relief a single box of Foley Kidney Pills gave him. "I had a severe attack of kidney trouble with sharp pains through my back and could hardly straighten it.
A single box of Foley Kidney Pills entirely relieved me." City Drug

MISS CAROLINE LOWE ADDRESSES
SOCIALIST MEETING MONDAY NIGHT

Gives Lecture in Absence of Marguerite Prevey of Akron, Ohio,
Who is Detained.

In the absence of Marguerite Prevey of Akron, O., who was scheduled to lecture to local Socialists Monday evening, Miss Caroline Lowe of Kansas City, Mo., spoke at the meeting on the subject: "What is Socialism?"

The meeting was presided over by Miss Grace Hoffman and the address was preceded by a violin solo by Miss Minnie Hoffman, accompanied by Miss Grace Hoffman. Miss Lowe has had charge of the National Woman's department of the Socialist party and her address Monday evening was heard with interest. At the close of the meeting she gathered together a large class of the women of the audience and delivered a special lecture to them in the interest of enlisting them in the Social movement, after which a number of them were added to the membership of the Jacksonville local.

Miss Lowe told of the work women were doing in the national problems and said that the movement could not be made a success without the aid of woman. She also told of seeing children hurrying to factories in the cities to earn their daily bread, working long hours on little pay. She said in part:
"The owners of the jobs own the bodies and souls of the workers who need the jobs to live. To be free and independent we must own the jobs.
The owner of the jobs dictates to the newspaper, to the pulpit, to the teachers, to the child to remain ignorant. This is the power that dominates us. This must be taken from the present owners."

"In three points, this is the Socialist position: Socialism has absolutely nothing with religion. We are an economic organization and have to do with material things. We have nothing to say about love, or about the marriage relationship. We are an economic organization formed to build up the foundation for a good superstructure along the lines advanced by science. Everything we use and need we should own and control in common."

"Rockefeller created the oil monopoly and has amassed millions.
We say let him keep his millions but we will take the oil industry which was given to 90,000,000 people by mother nature for free use of all.
Our duty lies in educating the women, teachers, store clerks, shop girls, housewives, in each department thus making possible the accomplishment of the real 'vision of the future' so splendidly foretold in the poem by that name by Robert Ingersoll."

Satisfaction

There is a satisfaction that cannot be expressed in dollars and cents, in the possession of beautiful furniture.

We are showing a splendid assortment of Berkey & Gay furniture for the bed-room, dining-room and library. Furniture pure in design to the period it represents, made in mahogany, crotch mahogany, circassian walnut and oak.
